Heritage House News

By Patricia Bubela, Activity Director

Residents of Heritage House attended worship services conducted by the congregation of Lissie United Methodist Church this past Sunday. Thanks to all attending and to the congregation for visiting with residents.

Catholic residents were visited by members of the Catholic Church Sunday morning to receive Holy Communion. Special thanks to the ladies for bringing the service to our home.

Dancing up a storm... that is what we did Tuesday evening! Our residents were invited to Bay Villa Nursing Home in Bay City for a dance, refreshments and socialization.

Residents attending the super fun event were: Roosevelt Carson, Frances Kelner, Francis Koudelka, Juana Cloat, Ana Smith LVN, Tricia Bubela, activity director, and Janie Lujan.

On the way to the dance, we had a lively time singing favorite oldies and cracking a few jokes.

The band entertaining for the evening was called "The Medicare Band". These gentlemen were great! They sang old country western tunes and were a lively group.

All in all, we had a wonderful time and met new friends.

Last Wednesday our cooking class made a delicious banana pudding. Helpers were Cecilia Keels, Francis Kelner and Juana Cloat. After the dessert was made, quite a few staff members helped us eat the goodies.

Tuesday afternoon residents were treated to Bible study thanks to Mrs. Gay Anderson. Gay had been on vacation and was missed. Welcome home Gay. What a pleasure it is to see you and Jean McInteer at Bible study.

Bingo, bingo, bingo! We went to Wallis last Thursday evening for a wild game of bingo at the KC Hall. Residents attending were Francis Koudelka, Francis Kelner, Cecilia Keels, Juana Cloat, Tricia Bubela, A.D.; and Jean Crawford. Jean was the lucky one. She won the black-out. Congratulations, Jean!

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Elizabeth Boothe. Elizabeth will be missed for her intellectual talents as a school teacher, friend, volunteer and so very many other talents.

Get well wishes are sent to Ruby Hirschbock and Agnes Brast! Hurry and get well!. We're thinking of you.

Congratulations to Adolph Hollas. Mr. Hollas attended his family reunion this past Sunday with his daughter, Carolyn Noska, and came home with a wonderful remembrance of the reunion. Adolph received a plaque for being the oldest member of the Hollas family in atendance. He is very proud of the plaque and expressed having a good time.

To Elizabeth... with love

We would like to give you a little lead-in on the article to follow. When we originally read this in the June, 1988 issue of Reader's Digest, one person in particular came to mind... Elizabeth Boothe. To us, the lady on the cruise was her... whether she had ever been on a ship or not.

To her and all the "Elizabeths" out there, we bring you this reprint with affection and hope that some day we will dance when we're alone. (Note: This was first reprinted in The Headlight's July 28, 1988, issue. We decided to run it once again, in memory of Elizabeth.)

When Alone, We Dance

Condensed from Marin Independent Journal
By Beth Ashley
Reprinted by permission of Reader's Digest from their June, 1988 issue

The cruise ship was crowded with people off for three days of pleasure. Ahead of me in the passageway walked a tiny woman in brown slacks, her shoulders hunched, her white hair cut in a bob.

From the ship's intercom came a familiar tune — "Begin the Beguine." And suddenly, a wonderful thing happened. The woman, unaware anyone was behind her, began to shimmy. She snapped her fingers and did a quick and graceful dance step — back, shuffle, slide.

Then, as she reached the door to the dining salon, she paused, assembled her dignity, and stepped soberly through.

That visual fragment has returned to me many times. I think of it now as I reach another birthday — and an age where most people would not believe that I still shimmy too.

Younger people often think folks of my years are beyond romance, dancing or dreams. They see us as age has shaped us: camouflaged by wrinkles, thick waists and gray hair.

They don't see all the other people who live inside, because custom dictates that we present a certain face to the world. We are the wise old codgers, the dignified matrons.

No one would ever know that I am still the skinny girl who grew up in a leafy suburb of Boston. Inside, I still think of myself as the youngest child in a vivacious family headed by a mother of great beauty and a father of unfailing good cheer. It doesn't matter that my parents are long gone, their four children now three.

Forty years ago I left Boston, but I'm still a New Englander at heart. And I am still the romantic teenager who longed for love, the young adult who aspired to social respectability — but whom shall I tell?

Nowadays, I interview experts, attend meetings, sit at my word processor and write articles. No one would guess that I once dreamed of being a famous journalist — living lightly from capital to capital, shaking governments with perspicacious insights and scoops.

We are all like the woman in the ship's passageway, in whom the music still echoes. We are the sum of all the lives we once lived. We show the grown-up parts, but inside we are still the laughing children, the shy teens, the dream-filled youths. There still exists, most real, the matrix of all we were and ever yearned to be.

Birthdays come and go — but in our hearts we still hear "Begin the Beguine."

And when we are alone, we dance.

Sheridan News

By Jim Brisco

Before a packed courtroom, Colorado County Commissioners voted unanimously to adopt the five-year master plan for parks and recreation that has been in the works since Jan.

Through the efforts of Dr. Carson Watt and his class of Texas A&M seniors, the Extension Service, Sheridan Park and Recreation Center Inc. and Judge Vince Slominski, the recreation needs for county citizens and guidelines for addressing them have been recognized.

The master plan is important to have in place when applying to Texas Parks and Wildlife for grant money to help build parks and recreation areas. It can be used by any city or unincorporated area in the county toward this purpose since it is countywide.

The next item of business for the Commissioners was the adoption of a resolution to sponsor the Sheridan Community Parks Project in applying to TP&W for a grant. This also passed unanimously.

Since work first began on Gohlke Field, the people of Sheridan have donated many hours and dollars for their park. The good news is that we can apply to TP&W for half the cost of completing the park. The other good news is that it's time to make commitments of time, machinery hours and more money to match what we need from TP&W!

We expect to have the grant application ready to submit at the end of July and need letters of commitment to send in with it. If TP&W doesn't see enough pledges of money and in-kind donations, it will not be approved.

Sample letters that can be copied or filled in are available at Oak 'n' Acorn, Sandy Creek Drive-in, Sheridan Lumber or the 50's Cafe.

SPARC thanks those who showed their support by attending the public hearing and the court meeting. Our thanks also to the County Commissioners and Judge Slominski for their confidence in the citizens of Colorado County.

Foot Facts
By Dr. Eric R. Tepper, Podiatrist
MEDICARE FOOTS THE BILL

If there is one thing that everyone in the national debate on health care would probably agree on, it is that it is all terribly complicated. Medicare rules and regulations are just one part of the picture, but for many older Americans in particular, they are often the most confusing part. For example, a common misconception is that Medicare is good only for surgery, not for routine care or other medical procedures for the feet. In fact, Medicare will pay for a wide range of podiatric services, including even such things as trimming nails and removing corns in some cases. Nothing these days is simple, but don't neglect foot care because of uncertainty about insurance or Medicare coverage. Talk to your podiatrist.

If you have questions about Medicare coverage for foot problems, please do not put off calling us. We do not want you to ignore foot pain and problems in the hopes that they will go away and you will not have to face the prospect of costly medical bills. Actually, taking care of the small problems can prevent most of the big ones from even occurring at all - cutting down on the costs for everyone. For complete family foot care, please call us at 234-5571, at the Eagle Lake Community Hospital. I am there the first and third Tuesdays of the month.

P.S. A podiatrist is a doctor who cares for the foot and ankle, able to prescribe drugs and perform surgery.

CLUB & ORGANIZATION NEWS

Nature Club

On May 6, 16 club members of the Tom Waddell Outdoor Nature Club visited the LCRA Lakeside Pumping Plant for an in-depth view of Eagle Lake's attractive bank-side habitats.

Guides Doris Laughlin and Steve Labuda pointed out a variety of water birds and other aquatic life.

A highlight, at least for the youngsters in the group, was the sightings of at least eight alligators ranging in size from three to almost 12 feet in length. Because of the aggressive nature of gators during the nesting season, these critters were viewed through windows of the vehicles.

Historical Commission

The Colorado County Historical Commission met May 5 at St. Michael's Family Center in Weimar.

A delicious covered dish dinner was enjoyed before the chairperson, Doris Albright, opened the meeting.

Minutes were read and roll call was taken by Colleen Wilrodt, secretary.

Mrs. Lumin gave a report on the preservation of the documents in the courthouse and suggested at $2500 be used for the project, including microfilming.

It was voted that since our May meeting coincides with graduation, that date will be changed for next year.

The program was given by David Kahlich on Jackson Avenue and how it came to be Jackson Square.

It was cleverly done, as he told many homespun tales that took place in the early days of Weimar.

Xi Pi Psi

Xi Pi Psi members met on June 6 at the Lower Lake Club with Dot Kingsley as hostess.

During the business meeting, President Connie Lange announced that the new program chairman will be Becky Anderson. Kay Thomas and Jean Williams will be on the telephone committee.

A summer trip to San Antonio was discussed. Diana Brunner will be in charge of finding lodging and planning the outing in July.

Mary Lou Syzmanski's program for the evening was very uplifting. The title was "Need an Excuse for Celebration?" She read the month of June from a special calendar, as each day had something to celebrate.

A poem, "Smelling the Roses" by Bill Biffle, was read at the conclusion.

Hostess Dot served a bountiful meal which included shish-ka-bobs-fruits and cake.

The second June meeting was held at the home of Cherry Corman on June 20.

Members brought food items to donate to the community food pantry which is running low.

Ernie Sommerlatte reminded members to start working on their birthday calendar list. It will be due in Aug.

The San Antonio trip was discussed as many members plan to enjoy a stay at the Marriot Riverside July 14 and 15 for a fun time of tours and shopping.

JoAnn Gertson's program was a mini-class for CPR.

A video showing how to treat victims for choking, non-breathing and CPR was viewed. Each member then practiced on a manikin as JoAnn supervised the skills.

A pool side buffet was served by hostess Cherry as members enjoyed a social visit.

Korenek, Fajkus honored with showers

A surprise pot luck luncheon honoring Carol Korenek, bride-elect of Jerry Fajkus, was held on May 24 from 12-1:30 p.m at the office of Graber, Simmons & Cowan in Austin.

The company conference room was decorated with wedding bells, streamers and balloons.

Carol's co-workers presented her with a large computer generated poster of Carol and Jerry "Going to the Chapel".

Other collective gifts to the bride-to-be were a terra cotta onion pot, bread basket and warmer, bread and pastry cookbook and two glass candle holders on metal stands.

A couples miscellaneous shower honoring Jerry Fajkus and Carol Korenek was held in Round Rock on Saturday evening, June 3.

Beef and chicken fajitas, chips and dips, cherry and chocolate cheese cake and assorted drinks were served.

The event was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Rizzotto, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Fulps, and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Reynolds of Austin.

Various games were enjoyed by the guests and gifts were presented to the prospective bride and groom.

There's something new at Prairie Edge Museum

New items along with a few changes have been made to the Prairie Edge Museum.

The curators have recently installed an enlarged photograph of Eagle Lake's Howard Fitzgerald in the exhibit case honoring this one-time major league baseball star; Dr. R.H. Harrison's personal copy of the sixth edition of The Merck Manual has been added to the Alleyton case; and a prescription blank from the Laughlin Clinic Associates, with printed names of Drs. J.R., J.C. and Curtis Laughlin, has been added to the Medical History case.

The Trash Monster and the horrendous, mounted giant Eagle Lake Alligator remain the all-time favorite exhibits for children of school age.

Don't forget that the air-conditioned Prairie Edge Museum is open to the public free-of-charge on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, 2-5 p.m.

N. Lake Baptist missionary lessons for May

Area: Cooperation - there is a vast difference between, cooperation, with, another membership, than "Fellowship, in church membership."

Quarterly theme: The enabling power of the Holy Spirit. Enabling means, being made fit by a supernatural power force. The Holy Spirit brings love, spiritual love, and his love brings unity, and unity faith. Christians must come into the knowledge of the Son of God.

First week: "The Holy Spirit and Cooperation." Eph. 4: 1-6

Cooperation means working together until something is done. The Holy Spirit unifies the body, and brings to our mind the teaching of Christ. Acts 1:8, says "But ye shall receive power, after the Holy Ghost, is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto me." It is a fact that we can't witness, what we haven't experienced. The Holy Spirit, which is the sensitive one of the God-head, (sensitive means, easy to grieve) will never lead His people contrary to the book, of which He himself is the author. And if there is some "spirit" which is leading us to do something that "is" contrary to the teaching of Christ Jesus, or his Apostles, be perfectly sure, that this spirit is not the Holy Spirit. Spiritual cooperation, is true believers coming together in unity, in one mind and one accord.

Second week: "The Holy Spirit and difficulty." Acts 20:22

Difficulty means, something hard to deal with. The Book of Acts were written by Dr. Luke. Acts means, the action of the Apostles. In these difficult and perilous times, Dr. Luke wrote in Acts 20:28, to the "God" called Leaders"take head unto yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost, hath made you overseers: to feed the church of God which He hath purchased with His own blood." We belong to an eternal, self existence "God" be real careful, what you feed us. The Holy Spirit is God entering into human hearts. Christ is the physician who leaves the remedy and then departs. The Holy Spirit is the nurse, who administers the remedy, and remains with the patient until the cure is completed. The great commission that was given by Christ Jesus, plainly stated to His called servants, "go, teach, baptize," it's time to face reality, Eagle Lake, our city, is in a sinful low state.

Third week: "The Holy Spirit and commitment." Philip. 1:6

Commitment means, making a promise to the Holy Spirit and standing on that promise, in spite of what happens. Philip. 4:13, Apostle Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Commitment is allowing Christ to be the Lord of our life. He will and can strengthen us in all areas. His indwelling spirit constantly reminds us to strive to live godly. The Holy Spirit never contradicts Himself. We need to be on our guard against the leading of false spirits.

For Rom. 8:14 teaches us "For as many as are led, by the Spirit of God they are the sons of God." When we make a commitment to our Father, the Holy Spirit will guide the believer to the field in which he or she should labor. Power comes when we stay in our place. Never make the Holy Spirit a promise that we do not intend to keep.

Fourth week: "The Holy Spirit and faith." I Cor. 12: 1-3

Faith is knowledge, and a higher sort of knowledge. Because it is a knowledge, conditioned by the Holy affection. Faith, is the second step to salvation. Eph. 2:8, Paul said, "For by grace are ye saved by Faith." So faith is the medium, which connects God and His true believers. II Cor. 5:7, tells us "we walk by faith." It is by the Holy Spirit and faith that we demonstrate the love of God. Without faith, there is no way to please God. Faith is what you have, before you get what you ask for. Rom. 5:1, reads, "therefore being justified by Faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

It take spiritual people to do spiritual work, and worship.

Pastor Rev. J.H. James; General teacher, Sis. Inola Johnson; Teachers, Sisters, V. Fields, B. McTear, B. Johnson, A. Hearn and R. Banks.

Rookies win with forfeits

The Rice Rookies improved their record over the weekend to 4-8 thanks to the help of the La Grange Demons.

The rookies were scheduled to play the Demons in a doubleheader on Saturday, June 24, at Rice High School. But, because La Grange had an insufficient number of players to a field team, they were forced to forfeit both games to the Rookies.

The Rookies next contest, which will also be their last home game of the season, will be played on Saturday, July 1, at Rice against the rival Bernardo Bears. The first game of the doubleheader begins at 6 p.m.

Everyone is invited to come out and support the Rookies in their last home appearance.
