8th grade Ladies lose to Bellville The 8th grade Lady Raiders volleyball team came up short against the Bellville Brahmas on Monday, Aug. 21. The match ended up 15-0, 15-8. Serving points were made by Rose Sosa with seven and Leslie Cranek with one. Coach Ginger Smith said, "Our gym is being worked on; so for not having a volleyball court to practice on, the girls did okay. They started a new strategy and I was real pleased with how they executed it." Coach Smith added that the girls have a good attitude and an eagerness to win. She looks forward to working with them and seeing them progress to be the volleyball players she knows they can be. The 8th grade ELMS team is made up of Tammy Donnor, Latashia Henderson, Rose Sosa, Tabitha Connor, Angelia Phillips, Chandra Johnson, Amy Fearing, Leslie Cranek, Symra Hurd, Sumeika Hodges and Melissa Vargas. Their next game was scheduled in Brookshire on Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Raider Varsity hosts 2-day scrimmage

The Raiders scrimmage with Palacios became a two day affair as the scrimmage was called due to lightning after just seven plays last Thursday. Palacios returned to Rice on Friday to finish the scrimmage. Offensively, the Raiders were ready to go and scored on their fifth play, a 16 yard run by Shaun Johnson. Friday night, the team was down a little from the previous night but still showed promise, according to their coach. Rice scored again on a 50 yard run by James Cotton. Brandon Mathis had a great game running the offense. Audre Hatton came in to lead the second offense and did a fine job. Mason Pratt had some good runs on the second offense. According to the coach, there are some things to work on as the team prepares for their first game. Defensively, the Raiders played very well. Leading the defensive unit were Caesar Buitrago, Michael Wiese, Tim Teague, Garrett Hagendorf, Cotton, and Larry Henderson. Henderson had an interception, while Wiese and Buitrago had some excellent hits. The coaches expect to make a few changes and think that the defense will be one of their strong points. The Raiders travel to Weimar this Friday, Sept. 8, to take on the Wildcats, trying to get the year off on a winning note. Game time is 8 p.m. Come out and support the Raiders.
