Interactions Between Warfarin, Food, and Other Medicines

Blood thinner medicines are used to prevent blood clots and to treat existing clots by inhibiting clot formation in the blood vessels. The most commonly used blood thinner is warfarin. Blood thinners may be prescribed by physicians following a stroke, heart attack, or deep vein clot (called a thrombosis).

There are several drugs that may interact with warfarin. These include aspirin and prescription medicines such as cimetidine, erythromycin, propranalol and the tricyclic antidepressant amitriptyline. These drugs tend to increase the blood thinning action of warfarin. The end result can be excessive bleeding. On the other hand, carbamazepine can decrease the blood thinning effect of warfarin.

Certain foods can interact with warfarin. For example, foods which contain large amounts of vitamin K can inhibit the blood thinning properties of the drug. Vitamin K rich foods include liver, shellfish, and green leafy vegetables such as spinach, broccoli, and lettuce. Beverages also can affect blood thinners. Drinking green tea (contains vitamin K) may inhibit the blood thinning effect of warfarin. Conversely, drinking a large amount of alcohol has been reported to increase the blood thinning properties of warfarin. Surprisingly, chronic or long-term use of alcohol can cause the opposite effect – a reduction in the blood thinning effect.

Raider varsity thrown by Shorthorns

Rice traveled to Schulenburg on Friday, Sept. 15, to take on the highly ranked Shorthorns, coming away with a hard fought 26-13 loss.

This was a vast improvement over last week's game with Weimar. The offense did not perform as well as planned but the defense kept the team in the game until the end.

Offensively, the Raiders produced only 137 yards and one touchdown.

After viewing the game film, the team saw that they were missing necessary blocks and did a poor job of hitting the holes and running.

James Cotton had 61 yards on 13 carries and Masion Pratt had one carry that went for the touchdown on a 53 yard run with 3:19 left in the fourth quarter. Cotton also had three kick-off returns for 78 yards.

Hopefully, with better execution, the Raiders can come back and perform offensively against Van Vleck as the team did against Weimar.

Defensively, the Raiders caused six fumbles, recovering all of them. The defense got the Raiders on the board first by causing a fumble that was picked up by Pratt and carried to the four yard line where Garett Hagendorf took it into the end zone for the touchdown with 52 seconds left in the first half.

The Raiders did a lot of things better defensively this week that helped keep them in the game at 7-7 for three quarters.

The Shorthorns finally proved to be too much for the Raiders in the final 11 minutes by scoring three times.

Performing well for the defense were Billy Ray Johnson with seven tackles and four assists; Clint Krenek, seven tackles, four assists; Pratt five tackles, two assists, one fumble recovery; Michael Wiese, four tackles, four assists, one fumble recovery; Cotton, five tackles, one fumble recovery; Hagendorf, four yard touchdown, two fumble recoveries; Caesar Buitrago, one fumble recovery; Kyle Fink, three tackles, one assist, caused two fumbles; Byron Black, caused one fumble; and Tim Teague, blocked an extra point attempt and tipped one pass.

Even though the Horns gained 411 yards against the Raiders, most of the yardage came in the second half, during in the fourth quarter. The Raiders were still in the game until that point.

Chosen players of the game were- Masion Pratt on offense; Billy Ray Johnson, defense; Clint Krenek, lineman; and Brandon Mathis, special teams.

The coaches are very proud of these kids for their efforts against one of the best 2A programs in the state. They knew they were in a game and they weren't going to give up.

With more hard work and concentration, we hope to execute both on offense and defense this week to come away with a victory against the Van Vleck Leopards.

This week's game at Rice Stadium features Parents Night with the introduction of parents of varsity players and cheerleaders starting at 6:25 p.m.; game time is 7:30 p.m.

Come out and support your team and kids at the first home game as they try to get on the winning track.

Coach David Biggs tapes up Caesar Buitrago's left shoulder during the second quarter of last Friday night's game in Schulenburg. Even with the painful injury which was examined by a physician at halftime, Buitrago played the rest of the game. Raider Football Photos by Jeannine Fearing

Raider #33, Tim Teague, turned in a stellar performance against the Shorthorns last Friday, blocking a PAT and assisting on a second block. The kicker was more than likely watching Teague on the second PAT, giving the other rushers a chance to come in and get the block. It was picked up and advanced to Rice's 47 yard line by #82, Michael Wiese.

Freshman get first win in Sweeny volleyball tourney

The freshman Lady Raiders participated in the Sweeny Tournament on Saturday, Sept. 16, bringing home their first win of the season by defeating Tidehaven 15-10, 15-7, in a 2-game match after falling in the first match to Brazosport.

After the first match, the Ladies made some good plays to capture the victory. Tierra Wright began the game against Tidehaven on the right note by serving an ace for the first point.

After that ace, Tidehaven jumped out to a 2-1 lead until Fausta Rodriguez served an ace to tie the score. From that point on, the Lady Raiders relaxed and played together as a team should.

Coach Troy Holcomb said, "I felt after we tied the score, the girls seemed to wake up, make good passes, communicate with each other, and overall, play with confidence."

Throughout the rest of this game and the match, the girls played with confidence that hadn't been seen all season. After the first game, the Ladies were not to be denied.

In the second game, Wright started by serving three points before giving up her serve by virtue of the net, but Tidehaven gave it right back.

Where Wright left off, Rodriguez took over, scoring the next three points with the third being an ace.

All the girls contributed to the win. The team members were Lori Grigar, Amy Moore, Amalie Kucherka, Rebel Canaris, Jennifer Christ, Wright and Rodriguez.

The freshman girls, after this win, found themselves playing for the consolation trophy against Palacios.

Although the ladies had a brief, one game winning streak, they played a great match with Palacios; eventually finding themselves losing in a thrilling 3-game match with scores of 2-15, 15-10, 14-16.

Coach Holcomb said, "In this one, the young ladies played their hearts out; fighting tooth and nail the last two games. They came from behind twice in game two and game three to come up just short on a line call. But, I am so proud of this bunch."

The freshman Lady Raiders were scheduled to play Tuesday, Sept. 19, at Lamar Consolidated in Rosenberg. They will take on Columbus Friday and will see tournament action again on Sept. 23 at St. Joseph's in Victoria.

8th grade Lady Raiders take it to the wire against Leps

The 8th grade Lady Raiders went up against the LaGrange Lady Leopards looking for a victory. The tone of the match was set in the first game when they won 15-7.

Coach Ginger Smith said, "The girls were excited, but they let their minds believe they had already won the match before the second game."

LaGrange came back to show the Ladies that they were not going to give in easily; winning 15-12.

Coach Smith said, "I told the girls that we had a fight on our hands for the match. They could do it, but they had to work together and communicate on the court."

The third game was a nail-bitter. The score stayed neck and neck, but Rice pulled out the win, beating the Lady Leps 15-12.

Coach Smith stated that she was very proud of the girls. A picture of their faces after the match would have been priceless. At that time, each one of the players wished Coach Smith a Happy Birthday... what a gift!

Scoring for the Lady Raiders were Leslee Cranek with 17 points, Angela Phillips 8, Chandra Johnson 7, Sumeka Hodges 6, and Rose Sosa 5.

The victory really helped. The girls on the bench were a great support for those on the court.

Amy Fearing, Symra Hurd, Latasha Henderson and Tammy Donner were also vital in the teams success. Smith hopes they can do the same against Sealy on Sept. 26.

Player of the Week

Leslee Cranek was selected "Player of the Week" for Sept. 11.

She served five points in a row, was high scorer against La Grange and always gives 100%.

"When the team needed to connect the most, Leslee did it," said her coach, Ginger Smith. "Her attitude is good. She works hard on that as well as playing."

Smith added, "I am very proud of Leslee. She has come a long way, but she has some more work to do."

Keep up the good work, Leslee!

In Loving Memory Of Fred Scott Sr.
July 15, 1916 - Sept. 19, 1995

Four years have passed since you left us! But not a day goes by that we don't think of you. It's one of the hardest things we'll ever have to do. But getting by without you seems even harder.

Words can never describe how much we miss you; your laugh, your smile, your attitude so true, your lovingness, boldness and sincerity, too. Off all the wonderful things about you, these are only a few.

So, in life we loved you dearly and in death we love you still.

We love and miss you,
Cleve, Valarie and the boys

In Memory of Sarah Flores

A grandmother's love is like no other, even when she scolds you; you can't help but love her.

Though time and pain took you away, you're in my heart and mind; and there, you'll stay.

I love you Na-Na,
Carol
