It's Study Club Auction time again JV Ladies win big

The Eagle Lake Study Club's 16th annual auction is just around the corner, scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 21 in the Community Center.

The main auction starts at 7 p.m. preceded by the silent auction from 5 to 5:45 p.m.

The Lady Raiders JV team went to Sweeny Saturday, Sept. 16, and came home with a first place plaque and individual medals.

Scoring off the serve were Risa Waddell, 2 points; Misty Tesch, 5; Terrika Strupshire and Valerie Korenek, 4 each; Christie Cranek, 9; and Amanda Weishuhn, 4 pts.

Rachel and Sarah Navarro pose with a few of the items being offered at the Study Club Auction scheduled for Oct. 21. The doll was donated by Fair Wells and made by a lady in Sugar Land. It wears size 24-month clothing. The red Case tractor was donated by Boettcher Hlavinka of East Bernard, and the Mustang Tractor Company of El Campo donated the wheel tractor scraper.

This beautiful quilt was donated to the Study Club Auction by Virginia J. Reed. She purchased the quilt in Ohio and passes on the information that the quilt itself was made by an Omish lady.

The auctioneer, once again, will be Joe Herbert McCreary.

Last year, through the generosity of the public, the Study Club raised 15,000 for the David & Eula Wintermann Library.

Be sure to attend. It's for a very worthy cause.

Doing a fantastic job of playing the back row, but not having the opportunity to serve, were Adriana Rodriguez and Nina Salazar. Rodriguez usually plays back row and does a great job. But Salazar really surprised me with her desire and determination. She made some really spectacular, one-ways has a good attitude and always has a smile on her face."

Player of the Week

The eighth grade volleyball team felt that Latashia Henderson had earned the honor of being Player of the Week.

"I put her into a game and she goes in with a smile. Whether on the sideline or on the court, she is always encouraging her teammates," says her coach.
