SPORTS

Anita Henske takes football prize

Anita Henske of Eagle Lake was declared the winner in the 1995 Headlight football contest late Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14.

Since there were no entries received with all the games correct during the 10-week contest, the staff at the Headlight went back through all the forms from this year's contest and found Henske's entry from the Nov. 2 games to be the best entry.

She missed one game, picking UCLA over Arizona State, and guessing 41 points as the total Raider game score (it was 34).

Also in the running were Jeff Frnk with his Oct. 19th entry. It had one game wrong, but he guessed 63 on the combined score on the Rice game; it was 101 (Rice 60, Royal 41).

Elvin Bassett of Sealy also submitted an entry with only one game incorrect for the Oct. 12th contest. His total Rice score guess was nine too high; just two off the winner.

Early in the contest, Isidoro Ramirez of Eagle Lake turned in an entry with only one incorrect, but his guess at the combined score of the Rice game was 21 too high.

Congratulations to Anita Henske! Be sure you bring some identification with you when you come by the Headlight's office at 220 E. Main to claim your check for $150.

And, thanks to everyone for playing and sponsoring the contest.

trago, two tackles, one fumble recovery; Byron Black, three tackles, one assist; and Kris Gertson, three tackles. Players of the week were, on offense, James Cotton; defense, Rocky Banks; special teams, Jesse Banks; lineman, George Weller, Dean Hen-gert, Kris Gertson, Brian Ford and Clint Krenk.

This brings an end to a very successful season for the Raiders. The coaches and players appreciate all the support of the Raider fans, parents, teachers, administrators, cheerleaders, managers and everyone else that made our year a success.

Thanks to Ms. Fearing and the Eagle Lake Headlight for their support.

Lance Origar did a fine job of keeping our stats and we appreciate his efforts.

A special thanks to my coaching staff for the job they did.

A very special thanks to our kids who proved to themselves, the fans and our coaching staff that they are indeed the winners that we knew they could be. Raider pride in '95' and growing!

Thanks again to one and all. Also a special thank to the Raider Band, Colorado County EMS and the staff at Thomas Clinic for all their help this year.
