Varsity 'breaks' Brahmas

The Raider varsity boys rode past the East Bernard Brahmas on Nov. 21 by the score of 65-53.

The team had a total of 20 steals and 14 assists. Their record is now 3-0.

Sheridan boys lose two

The Sheridan Junior High boys basketball team took a loss at the hands of Sacred Heart of Hallettsville on Nov. 16, losing 21-7.

Over all the Raiders are positive about the season and with a strong team effort goals could be reached, says Barnes.

Scoring for the boys was Adrian Garcia with four points; Cody Thompson, two; and Dustin Brisco, one.

On Nov. 20 the Sheridan boys lost to the Hallettsville 8th grade B team by the score of 38-21.

Scoring for Sheridan were Garcia, 14; Brisco, four; Josh Spangenberg, Bruce Lowe and Tyler Abernathy each score one.

8th grade Ladies lose to Bellville, Royal

On Nov. 16, the Eagle Lake Middle School 8th grade Lady Raiders opened their basketball season by dropping the game to Bellville.

Coach Ginger Smith said, "We started out very slow. Bellville was aggressive and ready to play. The girls seemed ready until they got out onto the floor."

In the second half, the girls played much better, according to Smith. Defensively they were able to slow Bellville down.

Latachia Henderson was able to slow their scoring at least 90% of the time.

Offensively, the Lady Raiders just couldn't make the shots.

The final score was 46-15. Scoring for the Raiders were Tocara Dabney with seven points; Angela Phillips, four; and Latachia Henderson and Rose Sosa each scored two.

On Nov. 20, the Ladies took on Brookshire-Royal.

The girls were ready and played a better ball game than previously against Bellville, staying on top of Royal.

According to Smith, Royal is a little more aggressive and the Raiders realized they also needed to be more aggressive.

Defensively, the Raiders did okay. Coach Smith said, "We tend to have a problem with not cutting the girls off, but we did stop some crucial plays."

Offensively, the team found by putting Dabney under the goal and trying to get the ball to her, they could score most of the time.

This was an exciting game and the coach feels the team will improve greatly after the holidays.

The final score against Royal was 40-30.

Scoring was Dabney with 15; Phillips, six; Tabitha Connor, five; Rose Sosa, three; and Henderson, one.

The team improved their record to 2-1 with the win.

The Raiders never gave up and showed a lot of pride and determination accompanied with a lot of hustle and pressure that allowed them to win the game.

Scoring for the Raiders were Warren Scott with 19 points, George DeVillie and David Rang, 10 each; each, Matt Milentz, nine; Jay Knight, seven; and Kevin Godley five points.

The next game was scheduled against El Campo Tuesday, Nov. 28.

Freshmen slip past Brahmas

The Raider freshman basketball team took on the East Bernard Brahmas on Tuesday, Nov. 21, overcoming a 16-point deficit in the fourth quarter to beat the Brahmas in overtime 58-57.

JV boys rope Brahmas

The Rice JV basketball team took on the East Bernard Brahmas on Tuesday, Nov. 21, and beat them by the score of 57-48.

Scoring for the Raiders was Clint Gertson with 14 points; Lance Grigar, 11; Rocky Banks and Maison Pratt each scored 10.

Leading rebounders were Gertson, Pratt and Kendrick Pipkins. The Raider JV record is now 3-0. The next game was set against El Campo on Nov. 28.

Varsity Lady's record goes to 1-4

The Varsity Lady Raiders started their season a little slow, but with five games behind them, hope to turn their performance around real soon.

"Playing on the road is always tough and that's all we've been doing," says their coach, Jane Laws. "We have lost all but one road game."

Their record is 1-4; the winning game was against Wharton. The losses came against Tidehaven, Waller and Palacios, twice.

With district getting underway in another week, the Lady Raiders hope to get out offense where it should be.

Coach Laws stated, "Defensively we have been doing a commendable job. For the most part we hustle down the floor and crash the boards consistently. The girls are putting forth a lot of effort."

Playing on the varsity squad this year are seniors B.J. Salazar and Rebecca Barrow; and juniors Rachelle Kallina, Andrea Machac, Terri-ka Shropshire, A.D. Cordova, Bridget Baird and Naketra Johnson. Also helping out during tournaments are sophomore Amy Obenhaus and freshman Jennifer Christ.

The next game is against Schlenburg on Saturday, Dec. 2, at 5 p.m.

Player of the week...for Nov. 16 was Latashia Henderson. She played a great defensive game. She was vital in stopping some of their scoring. Latashia did an excellent job, said Smith.
