Foot Facts

By Dr. Eric R. Tepper, Podiatrist

WORKING ON YOUR FEET

Take a minute to consider: Would you be able to do your job if your feet suddenly gave out? Even if yours is a so-called desk job, chances are you would be seriously challenged to function efficiently if you couldn't get around with ease. The National Safety Council urges workers to be aware of the hazards of the job as well as protective measures, to avoid taking risks, to takt the time to do the job right, to watch out for the safety of others, to concentrate on the task at hand, to follow all procedures, and to keep the work area clean and in order. Most importantly, if your feet are injured on the job, get proper first aid immediately and follow it up with podiatric care for any further treatment.

If you are a victim of foot injury while on the job, we urge you to seek professional attention. Early intervention and state-of-the-art treatment can keep you on your feet. Feet are crucial to your body's well-being. Treat them accordingly with regular podiatric care. We are currently accepting new patients and welcome your call at 234-5571, at Rice District Community Hospital. I am there every Tuesday.

P.S. About 120,000 job-related foot injuries are reported every year in the U.S., one-third of them toe injuries.

Vawter misses press

Jared Vawter compejed in State powerlifting this past Saturday, March 30, in Houston at Hoffheinz Pavilion on the campus of the University of Houston.

After lifting 300 lbs. in the squat, Jared missed all three attempts on the bench press.

Unfortunately, if you don't make at least one good lift in each one, you're out of the meet.

We wish to congratulate Jared on another fine year. This is the second year in a row for him to qualify to take part in the state competition.

Thanks, Jared, for your work and effort throughout the year. Good luck in whatever you choose to go into after high school.

Baptist Church Feb. Missionary Lessons

Theme: "Old Testament". Everything that happen in this world today, was predestined, meaning pre-fixed in the purpose of the almighty God.

Basic theme: Hannah, a woman who displayed ideal motherhood: I Samuel 2:1-11.

I Samuel covers a period of 115 years. In this society we are living in, there are may quick-fix remedies to ease our pains.

But Hannah's life proved the power of prayer. She was specific and direct about her desires, as she prayed. She asked God for a son. I Sam. 2:2, Hannah prayed saying, "there is none Holy as the Lord; for there is none beside Thee; neither is there any rock like our God.

God is both far and near. He is far above all created things, in power and wisdom and holiness. He is near, because by His spirit dwells in the believer for in Him, we live and move and have our being. Acts 17:27, 28. God granted Hannah's prayer and gave her a son. I Sam. 1:20

Second week: Jochebed; Exodus 2:1-11

Exodus means going out; it is the second book of the Pentatouch. It is the book of redemption. Jocheed, as the daughter of Levi, one of the 12 sons of Jacob. She is the mother of Miriam, Aaron and Moses.

Moses, as a type of Christ the deliverer, a divinely, chosen deliverer. Jochebed's faith in Gods ability, to solve problems, governs a mother's action.

By the time Moses was three months old, Jochebed knew she could no longer keep him safe in her home. Because pharaoh's decree was to kill the first-born baby boys. Moses became the first great leader of the Hebrew people.

Third week: Deborah; a fearless woman; Judges 4:4-8

Women have always had a specific place in God's eternal plan. The Holy Ghost will use us, in our field, in a more excellent way. Do you believe that?

Deborah lived in the days of the Judges. She was a contemporary Judge herself. Contemporary means, "not permanent, lasting for a while only." Judges 4:8, states, the man Barak, would not go meet the captain of the army, unless the woman, Deborah (not Debra) would go with him. And her faith in the God of Isreal carried the Isrealites forward unafraid.

Fourth week: Esther, a woman who saved the nation from genocide; Esther 2:8-23.

Genocide means destroying or extermination a whole nation of people.

Esther was an orphan Jew. She was an amazingly pretty woman from Ethiopia.

Many woman today believe if they have good looks, and favor of a powerful man, they can do anything and would not hesitate to do it.

Esther was so beautiful that the King found her more pleasing above all of the other virgins. Esther 2:17; please read it.

The King forgot completely about her color, for she was black. Love is color blind. The King had no idea Esther was a Jew, because her beauty had him spellbound; and that was what saved the nation from being destroyed; his love for Queen Esther.

Holocaust Museum has local connection

On March 3, a new museum opened in Houston. It is unlike any other. It's a museum dedicated to the history and memory of the Holocaust and its victims.

The Holocaust Museum Houston aims to educate, inspire and change attitudes. Its message is tolerance.

Deborah Reed of Eagle Lake has been closely associated with the Holocaust Museum-Houston. She was a member of the Board of Directors 1992-1994 and now, after an intensive two-week course in Holocaust studies, volunteers as a regular tour guide for the museum.

Her interest in Holocaust is highly personal, as her parents, Polish Jews, are survivors of the Nazi Holocaust, having lived through camps including Auschwitz and Bergen-Belsen. Her parents lost almost their entire families to the Nazis. Her father believed most deeply that he survived in order to bear witness to the horror and so that those who perished would never be forgotten.

Deborah is very proud to continue his work. "When I look at my two year old son, I see the third generation who has survived Hitler. Every generation has the responsibility to hand down the lessons of the past. I am privileged to be able to do this, not only through my son, but also through my work at that Grace Amy Kocurek was referred to in error as Grace Ann Kocurek. Debbie Behlen agreed to take notes on the present meeting. Treasurer Carolyn Marble was absent due to her uncle's death in Alice. Therefore, we had no treasurer's report.

President Williams noted that Jim Thornton had sent an acknowledgement and thanks for the CRT Scholarship gift in memory of his dad.

Proposed by-laws to be voted on at the Annual Convention have been received and will be the primary discussion item for the April meeting.

Members were reminded to send in their DRT hours accumulated thus far and DRT "STARS" nominations to Marble for submitting to Alice Kuykendall.

Williams reminded the membership of important dates: the CRT Convention in San Antonio, June 13-15; DRT Workshop in Luling on Sept. 28; and the DRT Convention in Arlington, May 9-11.

Chaplain Bean reported that she had sent five sympathy cards since the last meeting. She was asked to send Easter greetings to our two remaining REAL DAUGHTERS, Ruth Linda Sneed who celebrated her 100th birthday in 1995 and Lou Ellen Smith Crownover who is now 85. A Real Daughter is a daughter of a citizen of Texas during the time Texas was a Republic.

Registrar Albrecht reported nothing had been received from the Registrar General regarding the transfer from CRT to DRT of Jennifer Hoffman, nor had she any information on the other two prospective members.

CRT Chairman Betty Hill reported on several activities of the children, including participation the Washington on the Brazos celebration, serving Texas-shaped cookies to a history class on March 6 for Alamo Heros Day; and David and Barbara attended the Statehood Ceremony in Austin and served as pages for Gov. Bush and for DRT President Mary Kathryn Briggs.

Hill reported that David Hill has received the CRT Retired President's Pin, and that there is now a Retired President General's Banner, an award also bestowed on David for his past service to the CRT organization.

The CRT plans to participate in the Goliad Heros' Day by being in the Flag Honor Guard, and place a wreath during the Heros' Day celebration. Albrecht moved and Bean seconded that MH DRT pay half the wreath's cost; motion passed.

The CRT President General's theme this year is oral history. MH CRT plans to do an oral history with CRT State Grandmother of the year Grace Amy Kocurek. A CRT Scholarship Fund donation is being made by the Albrecht and Miller grandchildren.

It was moved by Bean and seconded by Williams that we send a contribution to the Michelle Robertson Fund for the preservation of the Burleson Log House at Aquarena Springs.

President Williams thanked our hostesses, Bean and Behlen, for planning the visit to St. Mary's painted church in High Hill and for a delicious luncheon at Frank's Restaurant.

Chaplain Bean closed the meeting with a prayer. The next meeting will be held in Austin on April 27, hosted by Rox Ann Johnson.

In Memory Of Alton J. Gottscald

It's been ten long years since you passed away. Sometimes it seems like an eternity, but sometimes only yesterday since your love and devotion and strong yet gentle ways guided our lives and filled our days.

You're so bound to our hearts that a memory spoken can bring a laugh or a tear a rollin'. It eases us to know you lay cradled in God's loving arms, safe from sickness, pain and harm. It's for ourselves we grieve and for ourselves we pray, that as He promised, we'll be together again some day.

Love,
Your Wife, Children, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren
