To The Editor & You

'Thank you' Father Eddie

This past Easter I had the pleasure of hearing Garrison Brown speak. This young man, who was visiting Eagle Lake, is from New York City. His message was one that has been echoed since the beginning of time. That people who stick together as a community, regardless of race, sex, creed, color or religious background, can accomplish much. There are no obstacles they can not overcome. Drugs and violence can become a thing of the past if people support each other. His examples were from the play 'Les Miserables' and a mother in New York who was tired of seeing drugs take over her neighborhood. All were killed in his examples, but others came to pick up the banner and move forward so that their dying was not in vain.

The same as our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Hearing this young man was a pleasant end to a busy day for me. It gave me a renewed confidence that anything is possible.

We are all God's children with a common bond; we all want salvation, we live for it.

I hope on his visitation here that many more of you get a chance to hear him speak.

Again, thank you to Father Eddie for bringing Garrison Brown to Eagle Lake and inviting us all to receive his message. It will certainly get me through another busy week!!

Respectfully submitted,
Councilwoman

Bush wants 'tight leash' on McQuay

While awaiting release from state prison last week, convicted child molester Larry Don McQuay asked to be castrated and alerted Texans that, once freed, he would molest again.

The 32-year-old former San Antonio school bus driver claims to have molested 240 children.

Gov. George W. Bush said while the state could not block McQuay's release, the state "will take extraordinary measures to keep a tight leash on this parolee." McQuay has been assigned to be placed under 24-hour supervision in a Houston halfway house.

Convicted in 1990, McQuay served six years of an eight-year sentence for indecency with a 6-year-old Bexar County boy. Two years were knocked off his sentence for "good time."

In the interim, the state Legislature has toughened sentencing for violent crimes and sex offenses, and made

Dianne Clements, president of the Houston Chapter of Justice for All, said her group would cover the cost of McQuay's castration.

Texas officials previously have refused the surgery because it is considered elective and legislation to allow the procedure failed last year.

Judge Allows ATF to Sue
U.S. District Judge Walter Smith last week opened the way for Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents involved in the siege of the Branch Davidson compound to sue Waco media for allegedly causing the Feb. 28, 1993 blood bath.

In a 46-page ruling, Judge Smith said, "...media arrogantly descended on the compound as if the First Amendment-cloaked them with immunity from acting as reasonable individuals..."

More than 70 ATF agents and families of four ATF agents who died in the siege used the Waco Tribune-Herald, KWTX-TV and an ambulance company, alleging that they tipped the Branch Davidians about the raid and caused the blood bath.

Smith's refusal to dismiss the suit's assertions that reporters' negligence caused the tragedy sets the stage for what could be an unprecedented trial on the legal bounds of media activity in dangerous police actions, the Dallas Morning News reported.

Reacting to the ruling, Herald Tribune editor Bob Lott said the newspaper "did what a newspaper is supposed to do - cover the news - and we did it in a responsible fashion."

Perot Files FEC Paperwork
Dallas billionaire H. Ross Perot, who isn't saying whether he is running for president, has filed paperwork to keep his options open.

Perot has written the Federal Election Commission to register his Reform party for the presidential election, and lists himself as the candidate.

But, in a separate letter he insists he is not a candidate. He said he was sending the notification because in many states "ballot access may be obtained only through circulation of petitions on behalf of named candidates."

The State Board of Education will consider 13 more applications for independent charter schools at its April 12 meeting. If the board approves all of the applications, there will be only one remaining slot for an "open enrollment" charter school in Texas. Board members approved six of the schools in Feb. those convicted of such ineligible to have their sentences reduced with "good time" credit. And though it currently is unlawful to enhance punishment for crimes after they are committed, Bush said he would continue to support legislation that would make parole reform laws retroactive.

"Like nearly all of Texas, I'm sickened that the current laws were signed not to apply to this fellow - that we can't keep him in prison," Bush said. In renewing his request for castration, McQuay said, "I still want the surgery. I've still got the disease and I know my weakness."

King chosen for top slot

Candi King, daughter of Kristin King of Eagle Lake, won first place in the Elk's Lodge #500 Baby Pageant in Houston.

The pageant began on March 10 at the Holiday Inn Select with 23 little girls in Candi's division. They participated in health, beauty, swimsuit and royalty categories.

In the health competition held March 10, Candi scored 100%; on beauty she scored 98%. After the scores were tallied, she was in seventh place.

Going back for the swimsuit competition on March 17, Candi made a very strong showing which sent her soaring from seventh to first place.

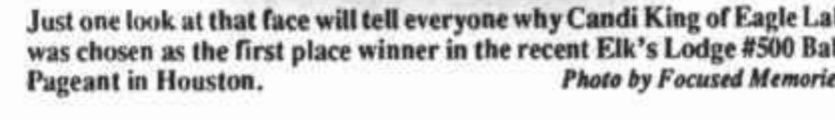

The royalty division was Sunday, April 7, at the Sheraton Astrodome. Candi held out to win first place. She was crowned Queen of her age group.

Candi would like to thank the Eagle Lake Drugstore, Eagle Lake Headlight, Lake Motors Inc. and Sportsman's Restaurant for their support and sponsorship.

Our special thanks to Sportsman's Restaurant and Mr. Dennis Stewart whose support put Candi over the top in the royalty division.

Also, thanks to those who purchased drawing tickets.

Candi is the granddaughter of Wilma and Kado Powell Jr. and the niece of Nekesha Tillman, all of Eagle Lake.

Just one look at that face will tell everyone why Candi King of Eagle Lake was chosen as the first place winner in the recent Elk's Lodge #500 Baby Pageant in Houston.
