New mayor, council members take office

By Lynda Appelt
 Contributing Writer
 David Mann assumed the position of mayor of Eagle Lake at the May 14 meeting of the Eagle Lake City Council after being administered the oath of office by out-going Mayor Robby Cook.
 The oath of office was then administered to newly-elected Councilmen Bill Kell and Michael Cooper and incumbent Barbara Pidgeon by Mann.
 The new mayor then appointed Councilwoman Renee Cooper-Scott as mayor pro-tem of Eagle Lake.
 Scott opposed Mann for the mayoral seat in the May 4 election.
 Certificates of appreciation were presented to Cook and out-going aldermen Mike Duarte and John Young.
 Duarte, who has served 17 years as an alderman on Eagle Lake's Council, said, "We have turned the corner. We started new things — good things! I hope the new Council will keep it going."
 A certificate of appreciation for serving as election judge for four years was presented to Bill Appelt who was unable to attend the meeting.
 Curry told Council the funds will pay for newspaper ads, flyers, billboards, t-shirts, staff, telephone and postage.
 The first order of business for the new Council was to approve a permit for the Juneteenth Celebration Parade that will be held Saturday, June 15, at noon.
 A request for $3,137.50 by Dave Curry from the hotel-motel tax funds was approved by Council by a split vote, 3-2. The funds, according to Curry, will be used to promote the Juneteenth Celebration. Councilmen J.W. Shavers and Kell cast the dissenting votes.
 Law allows any activity aimed at attracting tourists into the City to use the funds. Funding for an event after the visitors arrive is not allowable.

 A request for $3,137.50 by Dave Curry from the hotel-motel tax funds was approved by Council by a split vote, 3-2. The funds, according to Curry, will be used to promote the Juneteenth Celebration. Councilmen J.W. Shavers and Kell cast the dissenting votes.
 Law allows any activity aimed at attracting tourists into the City to use the funds. Funding for an event after the visitors arrive is not allowable.
 Curry told Council the funds will pay for newspaper ads, flyers, billboards, t-shirts, staff, telephone and postage.
 The first order of business for the new Council was to approve a permit for the Juneteenth Celebration Parade that will be held Saturday, June 15, at noon.
