Colorado County 4-H Agricultural Leadership Program

The Texas 4-H Rifle 5-Star Match was held on July 20 in Manor, Over 100 Texas 4-Hers participated in the various rifle events this year.

Five Colorado County 4-Hers competed in the Match. Those representing Colorado County and their events were:

Senior division: Ryan Brand, light rifle (1st place), small bore 50 meters (1st place).

Junior division: Jake Foster, light rifle, precision air rifle.

Light rifle, precision air rifle: Josh Foster, light rifle, precision air rifle; Garrett Ponick, light rifle, small bore 50 meters (4th place); Matthew Ross, light rifle, sporter air rifle.

4-H shooting sports coaches for this year's 5-Star Match were Ted Brandt, Joe Foster, Richard Ponick and James Ross.

4-H is growing

By Marty Graves, Colorado County Extension Agent-FCS

4-H in Colorado County is alive and well with 516 youth participating in 21 projects.

A 4-H project is an educational activity in which the youth learn more about a subject of interest. They set goals, attend meetings, go on field trips and may make a product or care for an animal or learn consumer shopping skills. Leadership and Citizenship are taught with every project. 4-H is learning by doing.

If you are thinking 4-H is just cows, cooking and sewing, think again. It's aerospace, computer, marine science, photography, horsemanship, gardening, dogs, automotive, electric, wood science, recreation and numerous other topics, in addition to the traditional projects.

Colorado County has eight community clubs and three county-wide project clubs. 4-H is for the entire

Basketball officials needed

The Rice Belt Chapter of the SW Basketball Officials Association is looking for new and experienced basketball officials interested in joining their chapter for the 1996-97 season.

The chapter provides extensive classroom and on-court instruction beginning in early Sept. All applicants are required to pass a medical exam and have reliable transportation.

For more information, contact Dave Charpiot, 409-865-2202; Carl Prein, 409-865-3006; or Marty McHale, 713-392-3155.

Keeping an eye on Texas

Honey brings in money

Texas produces about five percent of the honey in the U.S., with beekeepers earning $5.7 million in 1995 from hives that produced an average of 106 pounds of honey per colony of bees.

Pilot Club

The Pilot Club of Eagle Lake began its 13th year on July 1, 1996.

The club's newly elected officers are: president, Nancy Grasshoff; president-elect, Mary Ann Kaluzka; treasurer, Barbara Pidgeon; recording secretary, Lois Goodwin; corresponding secretary, Jeanette Zajick; director, Dorothy Jones; and director, Vanda Kumar.

The members are looking forward to an exciting year with many service projects and programs planned. Their major service project, Lifeline, still has units available for use.

Lois Goodwin will present the next program on Habitat for the Humanities on Wednesday, Aug. 28, at 12 noon at Taco Tony's.

Anyone who is interested in this program or the Pilot Club service organization, please contact Mary Ann Kaluzka at 234-2519; or Nancy Grasshoff, 234-2516; before Wednesday, Aug. 28.

Immaculate Conception sets festival, bazaar

The Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Sealy will hold its annual parish Festival-Bazaar Sunday, Sept. 1, at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Masses will be held on Sunday at 8 and 10 a.m. in English with a Spanish mass being held at 12 noon, at the church.

To begin activities, a meal featuring barbecued pork, beef, chicken and sausage and all the trimmings will be served starting at 10:30 a.m. Cost of the meal is $5 for adults and $3.50 for children.

Adult take home plates will be available.

Entertainment during the day will be provided by Krenek's and The Texas Sounds.

An auction will begin around 1:30. Fun and games are planned for everyone throughout the day: kiddie rides, stuffed animal stand, plant stand, cake walk, country store and sport games.

A drawing for 27 prizes will be held around 8 p.m.

There will be a dance from 8 p.m. to midnight with music by Family Tradition.

The Immaculate Conception Catholic Church parish family invites everyone to come and spend the day, visiting with relatives and friends and enjoy the fun, games and entertainment.

"Great tranquility of heart is his who cares for neither praise nor blame."
— Thomas A. Kempis
