

United Methodist Church plans 125th anniversary celebration

The Eagle Lake United Methodist Church (UMC) will be celebrating their 125th year anniversary the weekend of Oct. 11 and 12, 1997.

The congregation was established in 1872 in a small, wooden school house. The present church building, on West Prairie Street, is the fifth structure to house the congregation. It was built in 1976 and, last year, held a special Heritage Sunday, celebrating the 20th anniversary of the church building.

Saturday, Oct. 11, there will be an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. in celebration of the congregation's 125th anniversary.

An invitation is extended to those who are former members, friends of the church or families of deceased members, as well as present church members.

Sunday, Oct. 12, will start with a special worship service beginning at 10:45 a.m. and followed by a catered lunch.

There are still some tickets left for the lunch; the deadline to purchase lunch tickets is Friday, Oct. 3. Call Ann Pavliska at 234-2221 or Margaret Henry at 234-5918. If there is no answer, leave a message on the recorder and they will return your call.

If anyone would like to give flowers in memory of loved ones or in honor of anyone, please feel free to do so. Call the church office at 234-3288 or Anna Lee Higgins at 234-2259.
