

Girl Scouts reunited

Sept. 27, 1997, at the home of Mrs. Raymond Thomas, Girl Scout Troop #71 held their 20 year reunion. Mrs. K.R. Szymanski and Mrs. Thomas co-hosted the two-hour reception, serving cookies, sandwiches, punch, etc. reminiscent of their girl scout days.

Invited were the girl scouts, their children and mothers of the girl scouts.

Many brought their scout memorabilia. Mrs. Debbie Brune Jobe arrived with a suitcase full brought all the way from Arizona.

Much laughter was brought on by their many tales as scouts, some of which were new revelations their scout leaders, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Szymanski, had never heard before.

This troop enjoyed 10 years of scouting together.

Scouts in attendance were Sherry Fajkus Young, Elisa Keeter Adams, Berta Ramirez, Debbie Brune Jobe, Susan Perry Burris, Peggy Austin Derbolt, Debra Penns Cook, Ann Duncan Graham, Penny Szymanski Cathcart, Julia Thomas Pardue and Barbara Baker-Holderman.

Members of Girl Scout Troop #71 recently held a 20 year reunion.

Community helps

The Eagle Lake community really reached out to help a Houston woman find her miniature dachshund. Linda Pickup was in town for the weekend of Oct. 17 and ended up leaving a part of herself behind. But with the quick thinking of Steven Navarro, Humane Officer for the City of Eagle Lake, and members of the community "Wendy" was located. What would have been a lost and found ad, turned into a thank you to all who helped in the search.

Garwood's new postmaster sworn in Janet M. Wells was sworn in Thursday, Oct. 23, as the Postmaster in Garwood.

About 75 persons, including family, friends, residents and postmasters of neighboring offices, attended the ceremony at the Garwood Post Office.

The oath of office was given by C.O. Sylvester, Manager of Post Office Operations of the Houston District.

Wells actually has been working in the Garwood Post Office since June. She and her husband, Dennis, live in Brazoria. Dennis is employed by Dow Chemical Company at their Oyster Creek Site in Freeport.

Janet, 36, is a 15 year veteran of the postal service. She started at the Freeport Post Office in 1982 as a clerk and has served in many capacities including acting supervisor of customer service, officer-in-charge of the Damon Post Office on three separate occasions and was detailed to the training department of the Main Post Office in Houston.

A lunch was served in her honor at the Lehrer Memorial United Methodist Church Hall following the installation.

Wells said "I'm fortunate to be postmaster of this wonderful community and I'm very happy to be here."

C.O. Sylvester administered the oath of office to Janet M. Wells, the new postmaster in Garwood, as her husband, Dennis, held the Bible for the ceremony.
