Schleider named 'Officer of Year'

The Colorado County Law Enforcement Association Annual Banquet was held Sunday, March 8, at Schobels' Restaurant in Columbus.

Among those in attendance were candidates for county judge Leonard Peters, Al Jamison and Jim Kearney. Also in attendance were Eagle Lake Mayor Michael Cooper, County Clerk Darlene Hayek and County Attorney Julian Moore, along with other officers in the law enforcement field.

The opening speech for the ceremony was given by Shirley Kearbey, President of CCLEA, after which a delicious buffet meal was served.

After the meal, it was time to get down to business at hand.

Chosen as Officer of the Year was Lt. Mike Schleider. The letter nominating him as a candidate was written by Eagle Lake Police Chief Keith Webb. He received a new shotgun and a plaque.

Another award was given the same evening... The Hero Award. It went to Stacey Hayek Heger for.

The date was Dec. 13, 1997. It was her wedding day. She went to do all the normal wedding day activities and then decided at the last minute to add one more. She went to the beauty shop and then left with her sister-in-law to go to her future mother-in-law's home.

When she left her mother-in-law's home, she saw that the neighbor's home was on fire. There were flames coming out of the house, but Stacey ran in anyway while her sister-in-law called 9-1-1.

There were two elderly ladies in the burning house: Mary Beth Houchins and Norma Mann.

Stacey was able to get both ladies out of the house just in the nick of time, though, to this day, she isn't sure how.

Just after Stacey got the women to safety, the car parked in the garage blew up and took the entire house with it.

One woman suffered burns to her arm and hair but both women are fine today.

This is not the end of the story. Stacey was able to get cleaned up and make it to her wedding on time!

Congratulations to Mike for being chosen "Officer of the Year" and Stacey for receiving the "Hero Award".
