

Board hears Gifted/Talented students

Kindergarten students in the Gifted/Talented Program at Eagle Lake Primary School are shown reading to the Rice Consolidated Independent School Board of Trustees at its May meeting.

The students read a book they authored and illustrated, If I Had A Dinosaur. Students pictured are, from left, Holly Berger, Shaina Bowen, Caleb Gould and Timothy Morales. Listening to the students are Trustees Clark Powers and Laurel Milentz. Sharon Webb, teacher of the Gifted/Talented Program at the kindergarten level, introduced the students to the Board.

About Town...

A local resident called this office to let us know she and another person in town have killed rattlesnakes close to their homes recently. Apparently, the dry, hot weather has them out and about more than usual, so beware of where you, your children and your pets tread.

On behalf of Eagle Lake Rehabilitation Services, a $500 college scholarship has been awarded to Amy Nicole Obenhaus. Eagle Lake Rehabilitation Services, in conjunction with the Columbus Health and Fitness Center, has been awarding college scholarships for the past eight years to students from the Rice, Columbus and Weimar High Schools. The scholarships are based upon grade point average, financial need and organizational involvement during high school.

Once again, on behalf of Eagle Lake Rehabilitation Services, hope for continued academic success is sent to Amy.

Congratulations to Jessica Shavers of East Bernard who received her Bachelor of Science degree from Sam Houston State University in Huntsville.

J. Scott Blair IV graduated from the University of Texas, Austin, on Saturday, May 23. He is the son of Mrs. Michael Lawhon (formerly Julia Wells) of Baytown and James Scott Blair III of Sanford, N.C.

Mr. Blair joined Mr. and Mrs. Lawhon, Jennifer Blair and Mrs. R.R. (Fair) Wells Jr. for the two ceremonies held May 23.

Clarence Gore of Sugar Land also attended the exercises with the family.

Happy Birthday

...to you, my husband. You are a gift to me and the children. We love you so much. Don't ever doubt that. I know this time will be special for us. My life and love is yours alone. You are a perfect father to the kids and will always be a part of their lives. A family full of hope and dreams, that is what we are. Our birthday wish to you is peace and a life full of happiness and love. Together we can make it a reality. We love you, Sweetheart.

Your Family,
Lydia, Michelle & Adam
