By Roxanne M. Walker

Jessie Matthews joined our staff at Rice Medical Center as a Nurse's Aide in April of 1960.

She attended college to further her career in the medical field and graduated as a Licensed Vocational Nurse in 1969.

Presently, as a Surgical Services Scrub Nurse, she has dedicated herself to this hospital for more than 38 years.

Throughout the years of her dedicated service, Jessie has been awarded many service award pins and, on her 35th anniversary place even though she claims someone beats her to it.

She has also seen many changes and gives herself credit for the training of the surgical services personnel.

Just recently, Jessie announced that she will be retiring in Nov.

She has always taken pride in her work and herself and we will miss her.

In Jessie's spare time, she enjoys watching soap operas that she records while she works. Shopping is a favorite and she also loves to travel with her husband, Lewis.

While traveling, two of her favorite places have been the San Antonio River Walk and Las Vegas, where she lets her hair down and enjoys the wild side of life.

Jessie also enjoys spending time with her nieces and nephews. She is an active member in her church and loves singing in the choir.

It is with great pleasure we introduce Jessie as a new member of "Our Family caring for yours".
