DOES FLOSSING WORK?

Flossing may be a new subject for many persons. Most people seem to believe that a good brushing is sufficient, just as they may believe that a six-month checkup can prevent cavities. As most adults (who display their dentist's handiwork when they open their mouths) can attest, cavities still appear even though the teeth are brushed and a dentist is seen on a regular basis.

One of the best solutions to a persistent cavity problem is to floss. Here's why: Even the best brush cannot completely remove plaque BETWEEN the teeth and beneath the gumline. Regular flossing does remove plaque and debris from between the teeth and below the gumline — areas where decay often starts.

Those of you who think your teeth do not require flossing should test your teeth for plaque by purchasing a "disclosing agent". After placing the disclosing agent on the teeth, the plaque will be stained a bright red. This reveals where brushing is not adequate.

Sis. Magnolia S. Ford

January 2, 1922 - June 4, 1998

Magnolia Ford departed this life for life eternal Thursday, June 4, 1998. She was born January 2, 1922, in Colorado County, one of six children born to Richard Sullivan and Susie Alex Smith, all of whom preceded her in death.

She was educated in Colorado County.

Magnolia accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was a faithful and life-long member of Wesley Chapel Methodist Church in Altair.

She worked in the Altair area all of her life until she retired, working hard to provide for her family. Many times, she worked as many as three jobs at once.

Magnolia's hard work and dedication paid off when she was named the first Black Postmaster in Colorado County, assigned to Altair. She worked there until she retired in 1989.

After her retirement, she continued her community service of caring for and providing transportation service to various friends and family members.

Magnolia leaves to cherish her memory nine children; six daughters, Linda Felder of Clear Lake, Mella D. McDuffie of Cleveland, Erna L. Rideau and Jacqueline Jones of Houston, Brenda Ford of Altair and Bernadine and husband, Joe Toliver, of Columbus; three sons, Rev. Arthur C. Banks and wife, Jacqueline, of Tacoma, Wash., John Wayne Smith and wife, Sandra, of Egypt, and Leonard Smith of Huntsville; 29 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; two aunts, Eva Wills of Lockhart and Earline Junious of Columbus; a very special cousin, Oda Lee Glover; and a special friend Mrs. Lelia Jackson; also her adopted family, A.C. and Jessie Banks; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and loved ones.

Funeral services were held Monday, June 8, at 11 a.m. from St. Paul United Methodist Church in Columbus with Rev. Barbara Miller officiating.

Interment followed at Williams Paradise Cemetery in Vox Populi. Ben Davis Funeral Home, Columbus, was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Terry Glover, Tommie Toliver, Clinton Bluntson, Thomas Hargrove, Robert Mays and Shannon Smith.

Honorary pallbearers were sons, grandsons and nephews.

Sympathy is extended to the family in their loss.
