Gala for Renee deemed a success

Family and friends of the late Renee Balas Bullard gathered July 18 at the Stafford Opera House in Columbus to celebrate Renee's life and raise money to help fund research in finding a cure for Lupus.

Over 250 guests attended, enjoying a delicious prime rib dinner catered by Jerry Mikeska and dancing to the music of Kristenson.

A very successful silent auction and donations brought in over $20,000.

State Representative Robby Cook served as master of ceremonies.

Speakers for the evening included Cathy Thomas, president of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Lupus Foundation, and Steve Bullard, Renee's husband.

Gala for Renee will continue as a fundraiser for Lupus research for many years to come.

The event will be held in mid-July every year.

A special thanks to the community for their attendance and support.

After the Gala, Renee's mother, Linda Balas, and sister-in-law, Tess

Balas, attended a meeting of the National Lupus Foundation Board to present Board President Mike Nizankiewicz with a check for $19,000.

On hand for the presentation of a check to the National Lupus Foundation Board President Mike Nizankiewicz were, from left, Lisa Reed, Linda Balas, Tess Balas, Nizankiewicz and Bill Wright.
