

1998 COLORADO COUNTY FAIR FINE ARTS, HOME EC. WINNERS

Youth High Point Award winners were, in front, from left, Simone Petrosky, 1st place primary youth; Tiffany Neuendorf, 2nd place primary youth; and Ross James Weishuhn, 3rd place primary youth. In back, Stacy Markwardt, 1st place junior youth; Farah Ellenbogen, 2nd place junior youth; Lauren Trojacek, tied for 3rd place junior youth; and Lora Weishuhn, 1st place senior youth. Not pictured, Christine Wostarek who tied with Trojacek for 3rd place junior youth. The High Point Awards are jointly sponsored by San Bernard Electric Cooperative and Colorado County FCE Clubs.

Needlework winners at this year's Fair were, in back, Anita Neuendorf, grand champion golden age; Clara Horndt, reserve golden age; Lois Shilling, grand champion adult; and Donna Thompson, reserve adult. In front, Stacy Markwardt, grand champion junior youth; and Trey Staff, grand champion primary youth.

Handicraft's top finishers were, in back, Faye Sumrall, reserve champion golden age; Karla Shilling, grand champion senior youth; and Philip Brune, grand champion junior youth. In front, Stacy Markwardt, reserve junior youth; Simone Petrosky, grand champion primary youth; and Kyle Brune, reserve primary youth. Not pictured were Allen Ruhmann, grand champion golden; Mike Burns, grand champion adult; Evelyn Grunewald, reserve adult; and Jerry Miller, reserve senior youth.

Whipping up the best in clothing were, in back, Shirley Zatopek, grand champion golden age; Bernice Heinsohn, reserve golden age; and Helen Michalke, grand and reserve champion adult. In front, Erica Trojacek, grand champion junior youth; and Stacy Markwardt, reserve junior youth.

Canning the best looking products were, in back, Lora Weishuhn, grand and reserve champion senior youth; and Erica Trojacek, grand champion junior youth. In front, Barbara Prause, grand and reserve champion golden age; Luci Sklar, grand champion adult; and Catherine Blair, reserve adult. Not pictured, Michele Wostarek, reserve junior youth.

Baking is a specialty of these folks. For the best baked good, in back, Alvina Poenitzsch, grand champion golden age; Bernice Heinsohn, reserve golden age; Rita Addicks, grand champion adult; Sheila Prause, reserve adult; and Lora Weishuhn, grand champion senior youth. In front, Erika Ellenbogen, reserve senior youth; Kaylyn Brune, grand champion junior youth; Bernadette Jurica, reserve junior youth; Tiffany Neuendorf, grand champion primary youth; and Simone Petrosky, reserve primary youth.

The best at dressing up their baked goods were, in back, Mindy Malatek and Lora Weishuhn, grand champion senior youth; Amanda Potter, reserve senior youth; Sarah Anderson, Haley Henneke and Lauren Trojacek, grand champion junior youth. In front, Farah Ellenbogen, Kaylee Malatek along with Lauren Trojacek, reserve junior youth; Simone Petrosky, grand champion primary youth; Tiffany Neuendorf, Kyle Brune, and Ross James Weishuhn, reserve primary youth. Most original, senior youth, were Mindy Malatek and Lora Weishuhn; junior youth, Sarah Anderson, Farah Ellenbogen, Christine Wostarek and Michele Wostarek; and primary youth, Tiffany Neuendorf, Simone Petrosky and Ross James Weishuhn. Not pictured, Michele Wostarek, grand champion junior youth.

Bringing in the best floriculture specimens were, in back, Urissia Green, grand champion golden age; Riana Jamison, grand champion adult; Patsy Warschak, reserve adult; and Lora Weishuhn, grand and reserve champion senior youth. In front, Stacy Markwardt, reserve junior youth; Dave Prause, grand champion primary youth; and Bethany Dabney, reserve primary youth. Not pictured, Christine Wostarek, grand champion junior youth.

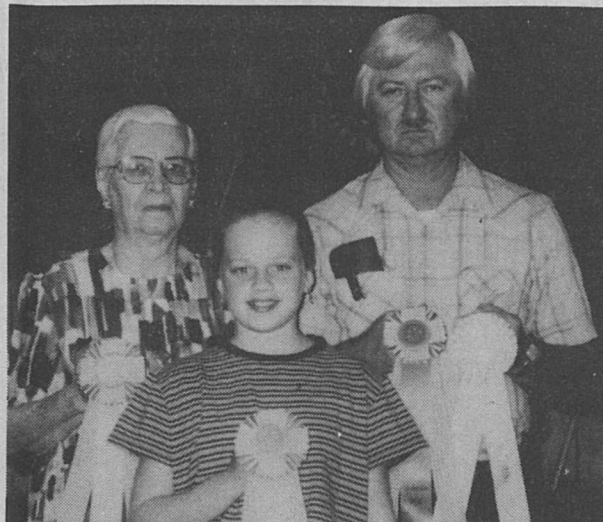

The best favorite recipes were submitted by, in back, Dorothy Fitzgerald, grand and reserve champion golden age; Mary Ann Henneke, grand champion adult; Rita Addicks, reserve adult; and Richanne Waddle, grand champion senior youth. In front, Joshua Dabney, grand champion junior youth; Tiffany Neuendorf, grand champion primary youth; and Bethany Dabney, reserve primary youth. Not pictured, Brandy Tuck, reserve senior youth; and Michele Wostarek, reserve junior youth.

Raising the best looking farm produce were, in back, Alvina Poenitzsch, grand champion golden age; and Winfred Eben, grand and reserve champion adult. In front, Stacy Markwardt, grand champion junior youth. Not pictured, Christine Wostarek, reserve junior youth.

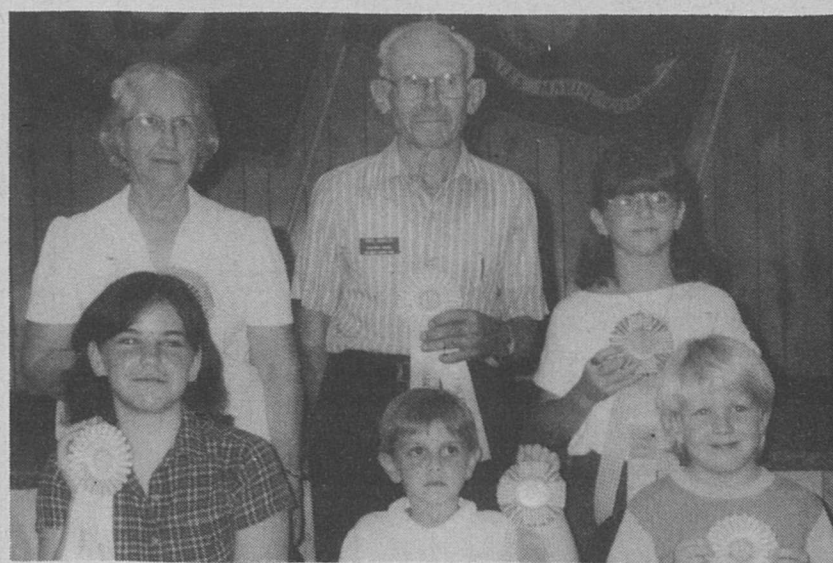

This pathos ivy raised and submitted by Shirley Chase of Columbus got the Headlight's vote for grand champion for potted plants due to the difficulty in getting the plant to grow so full while keeping the variegation in the leaves.

Raising the best looking farm produce were, in back, Alvina Poenitzsch, grand champion golden age; and Winfred Eben, grand and reserve champion adult. In front, Stacy Markwardt, grand champion junior youth. Not pictured, Christine Wostarek, reserve junior youth.

Growing the nicest potted plants were, in back, Urissia Green, grand champion golden age; and Audrey Schobel, grand champion adult. In front, Stacy Markwardt, grand and reserve champion junior youth, as well as unusual container and flower arrangement champion.

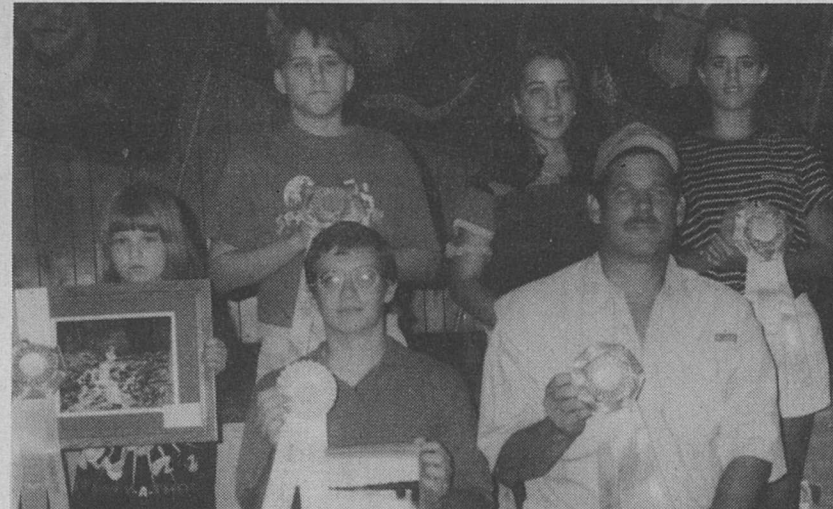

Showing their collective hobbies were, in back, Dorothy Neuendorf, grand champion golden age; Theo Schultz, reserve golden age; and Lacy Krueger, grand champion junior youth. In front, Sarah Anderson, reserve junior youth; Ross Weishuhn, grand champion primary youth; and Dave Prause, reserve primary youth. Not pictured, Rev. Sharon Burns, grand champion adult; and Dorothy Wostarek, reserve adult.

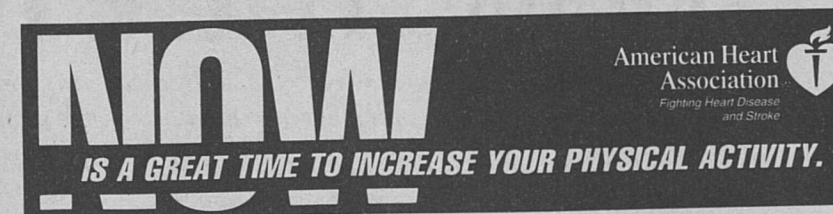

Go Texan photography winners were Patsy Warschak, adult; Sarah Obenhaus, high school; and Stacy Markwardt, junior high.

Winners in the western art contest were, in back, Casey Wessels, reserve elementary; Cassidi Case, best of show junior high; and Camilo Rosales, best of show high school. In front, Valerie Tait, reserve high school; and Ryan Henneke, a finalist in the junior high division. Not pictured, Melanie Hovis, best of show elementary; Kristen O'Leary, reserve junior high; and all other finalists.

Taking the best pictures were, in back, Simone Petrosky, best of show primary youth; Clinton Halfman, best of show junior youth; Cassidi Case, reserve junior youth; Ginger Case, best of show senior youth. In front, Gideon Obenhaus, reserve senior youth; and Bill Moulder, best of show adult. Not pictured, Clayton Watz, reserve primary youth; and Robin Moeller, reserve adult.

Texana is the favored topic of, in back, Alvina Poenitzsch, grand champion golden age; Barbara Prause, reserve golden age; Lois Shilling, grand champion adult; and Barbara Vohs, reserve adult. In front, Stacy Markwardt, grand and reserve champion senior youth; Farah Ellenbogen, grand champion junior youth; and Lauren Trojacek, reserve junior youth.

Fair Photos by Jeannine Fearing

See Additional Pictures, Page 10