

More offerings from the Study Club Auction Oct. 24

Kathryn Mehaer is shown working on a baby afghan made of pink and white ruffles. Also in the picture is an adult afghan of off white in a shell pattern. She is donating both to this year's Study Club Auction.

Sportsman's Restaurant owner Janie Schwemm has donated four seafood buffets for your enjoyment as part of the Study Club Auction. Pictured with Janie Schwemm, at right, is waitress Margie Schuenemann.

With the recent craze about Beanie Babies, this would be the perfect addition to your collection. Henry and Alice Sunderman have donated Peace and Valentino by Ty shown here in an old fashioned wicker settee by Country Collectables.

Betty Wilcox saw this pattern while on vacation and decided to make a sweatshirt for herself. Now she's made one for the Study Club Auction. It uses the cathedral window pattern and would keep anybody warm.

Les and Mary Jo Euers are donating an amethyst enhancer drop set in 14 carat gold. Any lady would love to get this from her husband or boy friend as an early Christmas gift.

How about this with a big bow on top beside your Christmas tree? Joe Lee and Ethel McCreary are pictured with a Radio Flyer All-Terrain Wagon which will be part of the Auction.
