health care benefits," said Dr. Kenneth W. Kizer, VA Under Secretary for Health. "For the first time, enrolled veterans will have access to the full range of services they need, not just those medical needs resulting from military service."

Under the Act's reforms, VA offers an expanded array of health care services, such as preventive care and outpatient services, in addition to eliminating many prior restrictions and confusion. Veterans can apply for enrollment in the program using a quick and easy application form that is available at any VA medical or benefits facility.

All veterans, except those who fall into certain categories, need to apply for enrollment to receive VA health care benefits. Those who are not required to be enrolled include:

- veterans with a service-connected disability of 50% or more;
- veterans seeking care for a service-connected disability; and
- veterans discharged from military service for less than one year for a disability that was determined to have been incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, but that VA has not yet rated.

While not required to apply for enrollment, these exempted veterans are still encouraged to apply so VA can plan more effectively to meet veteran's health care needs.

Veterans who have received VA health care since Jan. 1, 1996, will have an application for enrollment automatically processed on their behalf.

While the program got underway Oct. 1, there is no deadline for applying for enrollment.

VA Screening Van in Columbus

The Houston V.A. Mobile Screening Van will be in Columbus at the Veterans Community Center Oct. 15 to conduct FREE health exams.

It is an opportunity for all veterans to take advantage of health services which include: blood pressure check; body-weight-height measurements; screening for diabetes, hypertension and prostate cancer; preventive medicine counseling; influenza vaccine; tetanus toxoid; and self breast examination.

The Van staff plans to see veterans from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Needless to say, they can extend their time as needed in order to see everyone who shows up.

For questions and other issues related to the Van, please feel free to call Dave Cameron at 409-732-3573.
