coffee together right before court and I'm pretty sure they have already discussed your case. They have already found something to offer you before you have even set foot in the courtroom. The bad thing about it is, they haven't even deliberated over the evidence against you.

So what I am saying is that the Judge, District Attorney, and even the public defenders are acting in a conspiracy against you.

So if you are not rich in money, I feel for you when you set foot in that courtroom.

Let's open our eyes, and realize what is going on in our court system. Make it your duty. I've made it mine. A concerned citizen (Name withheld by request)
