

ELMS Star Students

Each month, Eagle Lake Middle School (ELMS) will be selecting two students from each grade level as Star Students. These students are nominated by their teachers for good grades, perfect attendance and superb citizenship.

The awards given are donated by a local business dedicated to helping our youth be successful. This month's Star sponsor is Lake Lumber. Thank you, Lake Lumber, for your generous contributions.

'Red Ribbon' activities held

The Eagle Lake Primary School Pre-K through third grade students kicked off National Red Ribbon Drug Awareness Week on Friday, Oct. 23, with a balloon release. A cluster of balloons bearing the message "Just Say No" was released by first grader J.D. Contreras as the students sang "I'll Be Smart And Never Start."

Participating in the activities were Shelley Myres, Daniel Goodwin, Drew Quinney, Principal Daniel Stanley, Red Ribbon Week Coordinator and music teacher Lynda Appelt, Chief Keith Webb and Sgt. Bill Lattimore.

Shown participating in the week-long observance of Red Ribbon Week at ELPS were Police Chief Keith Webb, the school's "Drug Free, That's Me" mascot, Doug No Drug, Shelley Myres who led the pledges, and Daniel Goodwin.
