First Baptist gets face lift

First Baptist Church (FBC) has put the finishing touches on a remodeling project which took six months to complete.

Driving by the church, located on the corner of Lake Avenue and Prairie Street, you will notice the exterior work consisted of repainting all the wood, iron work, concrete facing and trim of the building, as well as changing the color from dark brown to a light cream color.

The entire sanctuary was remodeled as well.

The dark front of the sanctuary was painted ivory. Old carpet on the platform was pulled up to reveal wood flooring which was beautifully restored.

A new pulpit was custom-made and painted to match the light-colored floors.

New teal-colored carpet and upholstery for the pews was installed. A reading room, off the foyer of the sanctuary, was created and includes new carpet, paint, book cases and other decorative touches.

Finally, the women's restroom in the foyer was completely remodeled and made wheelchair-accessible. Brent Beasley, pastor of FBC said, (See FBC, Page 8) night at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Armit Thomas, the occasion being their 38th wedding anniversary...

If there is ever a case when an atomic bomb should drop anywhere within a hundred or more mile radius of Eagle Lake, we know who to call on. Attending a Civil Defense talk in Schulenburg Tuesday night were Clyde Gold, Clyde Nispel, Lloyd Spalinger, Jack Stewart and D.S. Taylor. They were informed on what part they should play to save themselves and to try to help others in such a case...

Miss Ophelia Johnson is back at her cashier's desk at the First National Bank...

John Walker, a former Eagle making good, scored two touchdowns for the Wharton County Junior College Pioneers in their game with Edinburg last Saturday night...

Melvin Selph, another former Eagle Lake Eagle (now a member of the San Marcos Bobcat squad) did his bit last Saturday in the defeat of Sam Houston with extra point kicking and a lot of ball totin' on the side.
