"Our people have made a significant investment in the future of our church with this project. We are excited about and proud of the results. Of course, the worship of God can happen anywhere - but there's something about having a special place - a beautiful place - in which to gather every week for worship. Our goal is to offer a dynamic worship service every Sunday morning, and our new sanctuary certainly enhances that effort."

The remodeling effort at FBC was led by a committee made up of Walter Lee Bauer, Sandra Bengé and Marggo Harrison.
