What Christmas Means to Me

By Pastor Barry Bauerschlag,
United Methodist Churches, Eagle Lake and Garwood

Christmas is the season we celebrate that the gift of life, abundant and eternal, came to us from God as a baby in Bethlehem.

We remember the gift of reconciliation, renewal, and resurrection through symbols, stones, and songs.

At get-togethers with family and friends we know God's nurturing live as we feast and fellowship. Christmas bells bring to mind the incarnation of Emmanuel, God with us.

Candles show us how His light still overcomes the world's darkness. Parties remind us that His Spirit still blesses us with hope, love, joy and peace. Jesus is the reason for the season, and all the days ahead.

May God bless you and yours.

Love, Joy and Peace,
Brother Barry
