

Talent line-up announced for 1999 County Fair

Once again in 1999, the Colorado County Fair entertainment line-up features old favorites and some new faces. "We've got four days of great music scheduled for the Fair that runs Sept. 9-12," says Public Relations Consultant Carl Geisler.

The opening night of the Fair, Thursday, Sept. 9, the popular Emotions will be on stage from 8 to midnight.

Friday night from 8 to midnight, Eagle Lake native Ryan Thomas and his band, The Roosters, will make their second consecutive appearance at the Fair.

Saturday night will feature newcomers... opening the show will be a five-man band from Albuquerque, New Mexico... Rambler.

The headline artist for Saturday night will be Nashville recording artist Danni Leigh. "Danni has been described as the female Dwight Yoakum," said Geisler.

Sunday, Sept. 12, is Tejano Day at the Fair with Grupo Vi-Da and Grupo Zinzzero on stage from 2-6 p.m.

Danni Leigh, the Saturday night headliner, has already been heard on the radio and seen in videos with songs like "If The Jukebox Took Teardrops" and "29 Nights".

She was on Decca Records, but lost her recording contract when Decca shut their doors a couple of months ago.

She has since signed a new recording deal with Monument Records which is one of the labels owned by Sony Music.

A new single is due out by the time of the Fair, with a new album out by the end of the year.

So far this year, Danni Leigh has been on tour with Alan Jackson and played at the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

"For many years, the Colorado County Fair has featured new Country artists that were just beginning their careers," Geisler said. "Just a few of the singers we've had here that went on to be big stars include George Strait, Tim McGraw, David Kersh and Kenny Chesney... who knows, Danni Leigh could be the next one on that list!"

Outdoor Nature Club to visit Lakeside

The Tom Waddell Outdoor Nature Club, according to guide Doris Laughlin of Columbus, plans its next outing beginning at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 10, to the LCRA Lakeside Pumping Plant on the shore of Eagle Lake.

There will be time for a view of the diverse wetland flora and fauna of the area before Marian Bahlke presents a program in the LCRA Headquarters House after which refreshments will be served.

Club members, potential members, guests and visitors are asked to wear outing gear suitable for fieldwork. Binoculars, spotting scopes and cameras might be helpful to augment this truly unusual experience.

Persons wishing more information about this event or other TWONC activities or membership are asked to call Fannie Merle Welch in Wharton at 409-532-3195, Susan Tomchesson in East Bernard at 409-335-4883, Mae Ashby in Eagle Lake at 409-234-2019 or Laughlin in Columbus at 409-732-8875.

ATTN: LANDOWNERS!

The South Texas Hunting Company, L.L.C., a full time outfitter, is currently operating in your area and seeking additional waterfowl hunting properties. Will pay top dollar for rice stubble and water.

A list of local references will be provided upon request.

Nashville recording artist Danni Leigh will be the headline artist for Saturday night, Sept. 11, at the 1999 Colorado County Fair.

Pennies Project's winning class

Congratulations to Mrs. Hyek's kindergarten class for raising the most money in the Pennies for Playground Project sponsored by the Garwood Association of Parents (GAP).

For their hard work, the class was given a pizza party.

GAP would like to thank all the classes for a job well done and special thanks to all the businesses in Garwood and Nada and to all who contributed to this project. Many thanks everyone.

Appraisals

Tickets for the evening are $12 per person. This includes two appraisals and supper. Tickets are available at the Live Oak Art Center; Corner Drug, 539 Spring St.; and Home Makers, 1136 Milam St. in Columbus. You may also call 409-732-8398 for telephone reservations.

A silent auction will also be held during the evening to benefit the Art Center. A few of the items to be auctioned are reservations at the Four Seasons Hotel-Houston, paintings, pottery and much more. The night will also feature the sale of art jewelry by Staley.

Reservations must be made by June 14 as a limited number of tickets will be sold. Come join the Live Oak Art Center for this gala event!

that wood used on his home was nailed there in 1906. He found two pieces of wood with the names of Ernest P. Newson and Joe Pauter dated Aug. 6, 1906.

Larry would like to give these to their families as mementos.

If you are a member of one of these families and would like them, stop by his home at the corner of Pendleton and Burns Streets.

Maybe someone from the Prairie Edge Museum might be interested.

By the way, Larry lives in the old Coleman house.
