

Osornio, Rangel married July 10

Written by Joe Romo

Maria de Jesus Osornio and Jose Rafael Rangel were united in marriage July 10, 1999, at the bride's home.

Justice of the Peace Mary Lou Szymanski officiated the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Osornio of Eagle Lake.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Rangel of Rock Island.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a long, ivory, satin gown with long fitted tapered sleeves. The bodice was made of silk see-through lace, embellished with bridal pearls and roses. The gown fell into a gathered skirt that was enhanced by bridal pearls, ivory roses and Alencon lace. Her matching crown held various bridal pearls with a two-tiered veiling of silk illusions.

She carried a delicate bouquet of sage, ivory and lavender roses which were part of her theme colors. Hanging from the bouquet were strings of pearls and sleeves of satin.

Cindy Osornio, sister of the bride, served as Maid of Honor. She wore a long, ivory silk dress accented with pearls and a long, rum, pink tail made of lace.

Areli Arellano, Fabiola Rangel, Sandra Osornio, Yamilie Moreno and Tania Alonzo served as bridesmaids.

They each wore a long, silky, sage dress with a chiffon scarf which wrapped around the shoulders. The bodice of the dress was enhanced with roses and pearls.

The bouquet each bridesmaid held was a replica of the bride's.

Brittany Amador, niece of the groom, and Grecia Gonzales, cousin of the groom, were flower girls. Each wore ivory, silk dresses, accented with the three theme colors. Ivory rosebud petals were tossed as the bride made her entrance.

The mothers of the bride and groom, as well as their grandmothers, chose to wear dresses of sage and ivory. The three theme colors adorned the corsages that were worn.

David Rangel, brother of the groom, was best man. He wore a black tuxedo with a midnight green vest.

Abimelek Osornio, Joe Romo, Felipe Rangel, Enemecio Lugo and Angel Arellano served as groomsmen.

Adrian Rangel, youngest brother of the groom, was ringbearer. He wore a replica of the tuxedo to the groom.

The groom, groomsmen and ringbearer were attired in Ralph Lauren tuxedos. The groom and ringbearer wore ivory tuxedos and the groomsmen wore black. Midnight green vests were worn to match the sage dresses worn by the bridesmaids.

At 5 p.m., mariachis entertained the guests with romantic songs at the bride's home, after which, the ceremony took place as the father of the bride gave her in marriage, and Judge Szymanski officiated the ceremony. Vows and promises were exchanged as family members and friends cried tears of happiness.

The ceremony continued with photographs by Joe Maldonado and video recordings by Jackie Saucedo.

Friends and family stayed for pictures and guest were served refreshments and hors d'oeuvres.

After pictures, the bride and groom drove off in a white, 1999 Chrysler Sebrun convertible decorated with shoe polish and strings of aluminum cans, compliments of the groom's family.

The reception followed at Riverside Hall in East Bernard. Once inside, a portrait of the bride was taken before the guests could proceed. The guests were invited to register at the garden table adorned with arrangements of fresh bridal flowers of sage, ivory and lavender.

The bride's cake was a seven-tiered red velvet fountain cake with ivory icing and cream filling. The cake was accented with strings of lace, ivory roses, pearls and delicate theme colors. Rosebud petals were delicately placed on the cake.

The groom's cake was a chocolate quarter sheet cake decorated with sweet, red, delicious strawberries. The bride and groom's crystal, clear, glass monogram topped the cake.

The wedding party's tables were covered with a rum, pink wrap. Table skirts matched the table with an ivory, rum, pink color. Chairs were also covered with long, silk, individual rum, pink drape, matching the color of the Maid of Honors dress.

Beautiful bouquets of sage, ivory and lavender roses were placed in vases on top of mirrors placed as centerpieces on the tables. Candles were lit to make the dinner more romantic and cherishable.

Chicken fried steak with green beans, buttered potatoes, hot rolls, salad and tea was served for the evening meal.

Musical entertainment was provided by Los Super Temibles of Houston.

The evenings celebration continued with the bride and her father having the first dance to Bob Carlisle's "Butterfly Kisses".

The bride and the groom then shared their first dance as husband and wife to Mark Wills', "I Do, Cherish You".

The wedding party then danced to the song "Amigo" played by the band. The band played wonderful song that entertained the guests all night long.

As the night came to end, the couple toasted their new life together with family and friends.

The newlyweds would like to thank everyone for their wonderful gifts, the celebration of their marriage and the coming together of their family and friends.

Following a six day, five night honeymoon to the Bahamas, the couple now reside in Eagle Lake, but will soon transfer to the area where the groom will be stationed in the Armed Forces.
