

Denton, Glaiser exchange vows May 29 in Georgetown

Dusky Dawn Denton and Shane Daniel Glaiser were united in marriage Saturday, May 29, at 7 p.m. at St. Helen's Catholic Church in Georgetown.

The candlelight ceremony was officiated by Rev. Walter F. Carr. The bride is the daughter of Paul and Alice Denton of Georgetown. She is the granddaughter of Bobby and Jerry Proctor of Elmore City, Oklahoma, and Dorothy Denton of Austin and the late Harris Denton. The groom is the son of Gary and Betsy Glaiser of Eagle Lake. He is the grandson of J.D. and Ruby Nelson of Columbus and Edna Glaiser of Eagle Lake and the late Chester Glaiser.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of Italian satin designed by Marissa. The gown featured a halter-style neckline delicately embellished with bridal pearls. The bodice was complimented with pearl edging and covered buttons down the back of the gown. The Italian satin skirt flowed into a sweep train.

Complementing her bridal ensemble, Dusky chose a tiara of silver embellished with crystals. Her tiara held a cathedral length veil of silk illusion.

She carried a traditional cascade bouquet with white stargazer lilies, bridal roses, and stephanotis.

Charles and Barbara Nelson, uncle and aunt of the groom, served as witnesses. Nancy Schickram, aunt of the bride, and Charles Nelson served as lecturers. Cynthia Sunderman provided music, both instrumental and vocal.

Gina Taber, friend of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Shara Glaiser, sister of the groom; Rachel Denton, cousin of the groom; Amy King, Amy Porter, and Nancy Whiteaker, friends of the bride; and Vicki Nelson, cousin of the groom. Rachel Proctor, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl.

The bridesmaids wore elegant floor length red gowns by Jordan.

They carried hand-tied arm bouquets of white stargazer lilies. The flower girl wore a sleeveless, white satin dress accented with pearls. Her skirt had a white tulle overlay. She carried a basket of red rose petals.

Best man was Johnny Davidson, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Mike Heard, John Dittman, Mike Bobo, Howard Cruse, and Mark Whiteaker, all friends of the groom; and Donovan Raven, cousin of the bride. Devin Cruse, friend of the groom, served as ringbearer.

Ushers were Sean Denton, brother of the bride; Terry Proctor, uncle of the bride; Todd Nelson, cousin of the groom; and Kurt Sunderman, friend of the groom.

The groom and his attendants wore black, western-style tuxedo jackets with black Riata slacks. Their attire was accented with red, white and blue vests patterned like the Texas State flag.

A reception, buffet dinner and dance followed a Frizzel Hall in Georgetown.

Guests entered the hall through an archway of grapevines, intertwined with white tulle, flowers and miniature lights. The theme of a white rose garden was used throughout the hall.

The bride's cake was a four-tiered white confection. Each tier was positioned on clear columns at graduated heights. Between each tier were white miniature lights and puffs of white tulle. Each cake tier was topped with a bouquet of white stargazer lilies and red roses.

Also gracing this table was the bridal bouquet.

The groom's cake was a chocolate three-dimensional fire truck. The groom's table also held the decorated crystal champagne flutes for the new couple's first toast. A picture of the groom, at the age of four, playing with a toy fire truck was also displayed.

Members of the houseparty were Bonnie Hartford, Denise Heimlich, Leigh Ann Proctor and Nancy Schickram.

The dance followed with music provided by Jamie and Shawn Reynolds. The grand march was led by Joe Mike and Diane Spanihel, relatives of the groom.

Dusky is a May 1999 graduate of Southwest Texas State University. She received her BA in Mass Communication.

Shane is a graduate of Austin Community College-Taylor Fire Academy and is a firefighter for the City of Round Rock.

Following a honeymoon to Clearwater and Orlando Florida, the couple is now residing in Georgetown.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner on the eve of the wedding.

Honored guests enjoyed a meal of barbecue beef and chicken and the trimmings prepared by Austin's Bar-B-Q and Catering of Eagle Lake. The bride and groom presented their attendants with tokens of appreciation.

Showers

On March 27, the bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Shirley Seaholm of Eagle Lake.

Later that day, the bride and groom were honored with a couple's shower at the home of Howard and Gretchen Wilkerson, also of Eagle Lake.

On April 24, Dusky was honored with an "Around the Clock" shower at the home of her matron of honor in Round Rock.

On April 25, the couple was honored with a couple's shower at the family farm of Mark and Nancy Whiteaker in Georgetown.

On Saturday, May 1, Dusky was honored with a shower at the home of Bonnie Hartford in Round Rock.

Getting Ready for 1999-2000

By Heather Henske

With summer vacation over, a new school year begins. It was a very busy summer for many students involved in extra-curricular activities.

Band students started practice on July 29 giving the freshman one day to settle in before the upper classmen started on July 30. Nina Contreras said, "Summer band was fun, but marching in the hot sun wasn't."

Flag corps members attended camp at Blinn Jr. College in Brenham from July 21-24. Members include Captain, Amanda Engstrom; 1st Lieutenant, Sarah Rivera; and 2nd Lieutenant, Kristin Wesselski.

Also, Selena Sykowski, Kinsey Hoffman, Lori Smith, Courtney Sims, Tiffany Perry, Jennifer Biaselli, Stephanie Sommerlatte and Amanda Labay.

Receiving awards were A. Engstrom, Rivera, Wesselski, Hoffman, Sykowski, Smith, Sims, Perry, Biaselli and Sommerlatte. All of them were invited to perform in the Citrus Bowl and the Aloha Bowl.

Sims and Biaselli were also recognized for the All Star Honor Roll (top 10% of All Stars). They worked hard and learned several routines which they will be performing during half time of Rice football games and other activities.

The Rice cheerleaders attended camp at Our Lady of the Lake in San Antonio, from June 15-18. The 1999-2000 varsity cheering squad includes Captain, Heather Henske; Co-Captain, Jenna Hoffman; Stacy Schneider, Jacqueline Thomas, Shelley Boenisch, Kristine Thompson, Kayce Wilkerson, Jamie Christ, Corissa Mathis and Tiffany Moore. Mascot is Leslie Waddell.

The junior varsity cheerleaders are Captain, Jessica Thomas; Megan Smith, Erin Gold, Brittany Waligura, Tiffany Stern, Andrea Contreras, Nikki Maxie and Leila Baggett.

Leila said, "that cheerleading camp was very educational." She also said, "The cheerleaders will look awesome because we learned a lot of new things. It was challenging."

The cheerleaders learned many new cheers, stunts and chants along with bringing home many awards. The varsity team, was chosen as Top Team Finalist Award, Varsity Chant Champion and chosen to the top 3 for Nationals. The cheerleaders also received the Herkey Team Award, Stunt Award and received the Spirit Stick. Varsity team member Jacqueline Thomas was chosen to the All-Star Team. Congratulations to all of the band members, flag corp and cheerleaders for their many accomplishments. Please come out and support them.

Meet the Teacher

By Cecelia Ruiz

As you look around the Rice High School campus, you might see some new faces. There are many new teachers at the school this year, but there is one face that you might already know. Having had two kids graduate from Rice already, Mrs. Melody Grigar isn't a stranger to the school.

This is Mrs. Grigar's first year as a teacher. She is teaching classes in Accounting, Record Keeping, Business Law/Management, Public Speaking and Business Communications. When asked what she liked about Rice so far she commented, "It's fun for me to work at the same high school I graduated from, and have spent so much time in over the years. The staff has been so helpful."

Since it is Mrs. Grigar's first year teaching, she may have been a little confused by the students, but when she was asked what she thought of the students she quickly commented, "The students are great! I know so many of them already, but there are many that I'm just getting to know."

Since Mrs. Grigar is also the Business Communications (yearbook) sponsor, she will be very busy this year. When asked about how the yearbook will be this year she stated, "the '99 yearbook looks great to me. I hope this year's annual will be as good as last year's. Look for some new ideas because the editor, Chrissy Leopold, and the staff have some creative ideas."

Athletes report for fall sports

By Stacy Schnieder

On Aug. 4, many of the students participating in football and volleyball began their first day of practice. Everyone gave their all, whether working out in the hot sun or doing conditioning in the gym.

All the athletes seem to have one goal in mind; to have a good, successful season. Senior setter, Angela Phillips, believes this can happen with a little effort, hard work, and dedication. Most of the team agrees that Coach Dietrich has the ability to help lead the team in their best season ever.

This also goes for football, which will be starting off the season at Weimar on Sept. 3. Rice quarterback, Klay Korenek, knows if the players listen to Coach Roark, cooperate, and participate, the team can do nothing but try their best.

Hopefully, the fans will show their support for these athletes at games. They have been working very hard this summer and deserve to hear cheers.

Over the summer, the Rice High School Chapter of the FFA attended the state convention in Amarillo. There, state officers and representatives were elected.

Attending the convention were local chapter members Stephanie Braden, Brett Boenisch, Heather Shanks, Brandon Shanks, Amy Donnelly and Jacob Little.

Junior FFA members who attended were Camille Staff, Jess Little and Chad Mahalit.

FFA officers of the local chapter are President Stephanie Braden; Vice-President Brandon Shanks; Treasurer Jacob Little; Secretary Heather Shanks; Reporter Brett Boenisch; Chaplain Garrett Craneck; and Sentinel will be announced later.

The FFA held an informal meeting Aug. 16 at 7 p.m. They discussed the local FFA tag in date for steers, hogs and goats.

Also discussed were show rules, livestock judging contest, commercial steer participants, and members who plan to show in the fair and fair committees.

Good luck and a successful year to the FFA.

"Feels like...what?"

By Eric Tillery

As the doors swung open at Rice High School (RHS) on Aug. 10, facial expressions said everything that words could not.

The seniors came prepared. They already knew what to expect. They were anxious to get the school year started with dreams of graduation flowing through their minds.

The juniors had jealousy in their eyes wishing they were seniors because they knew that it was just another year. They still had one more rung to climb on the ladder of seniority.

The sophomores were so glad that the "Fish Pond" was restocked. Imelda Posada, one of many sophomores returning to RHS, stated, "I'm glad to be back so I can hit the books and be one step closer to graduation."

The freshman looked like lost puppies, looking for help in all directions. They had expressions on their faces unlike any other class.

Andrea Contreras, one of the new faces at RHS, expressed her feelings by stating, "I'm so excited about being here and meeting new people."

The faculty members at RHS had already counted the days until school was out.

They were not looking forward to getting the school year started. All they see in their future are late nights of grading papers, exams, and having to deal with teenagers in a classroom on a daily basis.

However, nervousness and anxiety will soon wear off as the year progresses. Student and faculty's routines will get back into the swing of things and will soon be just an old habit.
