Junior Barnyard Featured At Fair

The Children's Petting Zoo is always a popular exhibit at each year's Fair. This year FFA chapters will provide animals of different varieties and ages for the enjoyment of fair patrons.

Admission will be free. Children will be able to view and interact with the animals and see baby chicks hatch. School groups are welcome to come out all day Friday, September 10. The exhibit will open at 9:00 a.m. Call Pamela Potter at 732-2705 to schedule a visit.

Go Texan Horseshoes, Washer Pitching Competition

The Go Texan Horseshoe and Washer Pitching contests will be held in conjunction with this year's fair on Montezuma Street across the street from the livestock grounds. Both events will be held Sunday, September 12. All team members must be residents of Colorado County. Entry fee is $20 per team.

The Junior Boys, Junior Girls and Womens Go Texan Horseshoe teams will start at 12 noon. The Men's Go Texan teams will start at 1 p.m. All Open horseshoe teams will start at 3 p.m. For additional information contact chairman Billy Ray Krenek at 409-758-3588.

The Washer Pitching will be open to Go Texan teams only and will begin at 2 p.m. For more information contact chairman Steve Wicke at 409-732-8660.
