

TSA hosts fishing event for area Cub Scouts

Saturday, Sept. 18, sixteen Cub Scouts enjoyed an afternoon of fishing, made possible by the Texas Sportsman's Association (TSA).

Awards and certificates were presented for several categories of accomplishments. The event was topped off with a hot dog cook out.

Cub scouts participating came from Alleyton, Columbus, Glidden, Eagle Lake and Bellville. Prizes and certificates of recognition were awarded.

Josh Gertson was recognized for catching the biggest fish (13-1/2") and received a rod and reel.

Samuel Spaulding was recognized for catching the most fish (two) and received a tackle box.

Tyler Ross was recognized for exhibiting qualities for sportsmanship and received a fish basket. He was selected for this recognition by his fellow scouts.

All the scouts were divided into four separate teams. The Blue team of Gertson, Riley and S. Spaulding and Evan Venghaus won first place for catching the most fish as a team.

The TSA provided bait for the boys. Each participant was presented with a gift of his own stringer.

By supper time, everyone had worked up a big appetite and really enjoyed the cook out.

Scouts were accompanied by an adult sponsor and assisted by members of the TSA.

A special word of appreciation goes to Crockett Leyendecker, president of the TSA, for allowing the use of his private pond for the event and also to Colorado County Game Warden David Perry who provided rods and reels for those who needed them, as well as additional bait.

The TSA will hold their Fall Fund Raiser this coming Sunday, Sept. 26, at the Ellinger Chamber of Commerce Hall. A chicken fried steak dinner will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

There will be auction items, door prizes, arts and crafts, etc. with lots of fun for the whole family.

The TSA uses its funds for events such as this fishing project, as they work to encourage "the protection and conservation of fish, game, other wildlife, grasslands and forests."

If you would like to learn more about TSA, you may call Leyendecker at 409-732-3302; Bob Raborn, 732-6483; or Doris Rinn, 1-800-925-4872.
