

On the launch pad, counting down!

In just 24 days, there will be a great evening for all of Eagle Lake!

On Oct. 23, the Eagle Lake Firemen, their Auxiliary and the Eagle Lake Study Club will host the Annual Stew Supper and Auction.

This year marks the 20th Anniversary of this fund raiser.

All three groups have benefited from this combined effort. There will be great food and fun for all in attendance.

The Study Club has raised over $250,000 in support of the library.

Through the generous gift of the building by Mr. and Mrs. David Wintermann and the continued support of the community, Eagle Lake has a very fine library.

In 1999, computers were installed in the library for patrons' use.

All other functions of the library are now operating through the computer.

Your continued support is asked so our library may offer additional services in the coming years.

There will be a "Bake Sale", Silent Auction and the exciting Main Auction with some new and exciting items offered for bidding. See you at the Community Center on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 5 p.m. on!

Once again, the Cow-Camp Cookers, consisting of Delbert Castleman, Bill Kell and Joe McCreary, will donate their talents and good looks to the Study Club Auction. It's a party of 30 at your place or theirs. Delbert Castleman's authentic wagon will create the atmosphere while the Cow-Camp Cookers will create the meal. Photo Courtesy of Candy McCreary

Fire Prevention Week to be observed Oct. 3-9

The Colorado County Farm Bureau (CCFB) joins County Judge Al Jamison, the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), firefighters and others in promoting fire prevention and safety during Fire Prevention Week Oct. 3-9, 1999.

This week commemorates the Great Chicago Fire of 1871, which killed more than 250 persons, left 100,000 homeless and destroyed more than 17,400 buildings.

Too few people develop and regularly practice a home fire escape plan. That's why NFPA is sponsoring a three-year public safety campaign called "Fire Drills: The Great Escape!"

Started in 1998, "The Great Escape" encourages home fire escape planning and practice, ensuring that people know what to do in a home fire and can escape safely.

Some 250,000 families throughout North America participated last Oct.; 25 saved lives have already been documented as a direct result.

Smoke and poisonous gases are the leading causes of death in fires, and can kill a person long before the flames will.

Underestimating the power of fire and the time it takes to escape a home fire put people at severe risk of fire death and injury.

In the best case, you only have just one or two minutes to escape a typical home fire safely.

Home fire escape planning and practice are critical to life safety because they ensure that everyone knows how to use those minutes and escape unharmed. Developing and practicing a home fire escape plan at least twice a year are critical to escaping a real fire safely.

A complete home escape plan includes working smoke alarms, everyone in the household knowing two ways out of each room, having an outside location where everyone will meet upon exiting and memorizing the local fire department's emergency telephone number.

The CCFB promotes public awareness of fire safety and encourages everyone to plan and practice "Fire Drills: The Great Escape!"
