

Study Club Auction is Oct. 23

Are you ready for a night of food and fun?

On Oct. 23, the Eagle Lake Study Club will hold the 20th auction to support the local library.

Come purchase baked goods for the coming holidays and start your shopping for Christmas. Beautiful decorative items will be available along with a great selection of gift items and meal and beauty certificates.

Donations have been received from Linda's Beauty Salon, Marcy's Beauty Salon, Tresse's Inc. Hair Salon; also from Blue Plate Cafe, Sporsman's Restaurant, Simple Simon's Pizza and Taco Tony's Mexican Cafe.

The Eagle Lake Supermarket has donated four Thanksgiving turkeys for the door prizes.

Need some rice? The Colorado County Rice Mill has given three 20-pound bags of rice.

Other items include a mammogram test donated by the Rice Medical Center, teeth whitening procedure by Dr. John B. Myres; and a night's lodging at the Farris 1912.

There will be items for young and old, so come have an evening of food and fun with the Study Club.

Don't forget the Victorian Doll House! There are only 40 tickets left, so come by the library and make some little girl happy.

Librarian Charlene Rodgers shows off many of the beautiful donated items. A&G Auto Parts (NAPA) has donated the Valentina Beanie Baby. Tresse's Inc. Hair Salon wants you to look lovely with these Vital Nutrients products. Peggy Byrns has also been a busy little bee getting her donation of this yo-yo quilt and a heart shaped wreath ready.

Nellie Frnka has been busy making donations: Matilda the candy holder, a snowman Christmas arrangement and a fall pumpkin arrangement. Any one of these would make a great centerpiece.

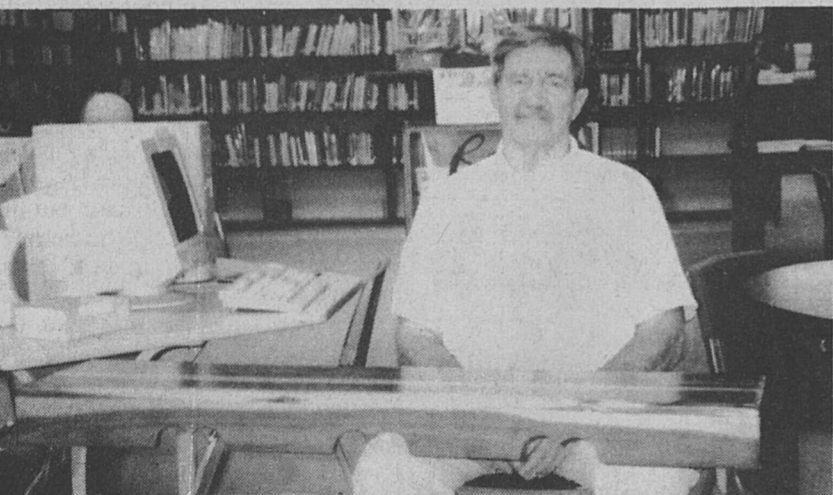

Marcy's Beauty Shop wants you to look your best for the holidays with these Amplify hair products by Matrix and a gift bag in which to put them. Mrs. Patty Holloway has donated this lovely Christmas wreath and basket for your holiday decorating.

Calling all goose and duck hunters! Bobby Wied of B&S Bird Taxidermy has donated a free mounting of your prized duck or goose.

Judy Cooper, left, owner of "This Old House" is donating a large basket with a dried arrangement that would look great in your home. Standing with her are Study Club Auction chairperson Fair Wells, center, and co-chair Betty Wilcox.

Joe Duncan is shown with a handmade cedar hall table he is donating to the Study Club Auction.
