

Any youngster would love to have this under their Christmas tree. It's a Radio Shack® radio controlled 4x4 called "Rage" donated by Linda and Steve Balas, owners of the Radio Shack store in Eagle Lake. Steve had a good time playing with it and would love it under his tree as well.

Melvin and Joyce Stancik (Furniture Shoppe) have donated this porcelain doll with table and chairs and a tea set that any little girl, young or old, would love to have. Eagle Trailer Parts (Connie and Willard Lange) also donated a set of porcelain dolls with a table, chairs and tea set. So, if you don't win one, bid on the other.

Patti and Marshall Holloway, recent transplants to Eagle Lake, have made and donated these two ghost cut-outs to decorate your yard just in time for Halloween.

Henry and Alice Sunderman want all of you Beanie Baby Collectors to get ready to bid on these three bears: the 1999 Signature Bear, Millennium Bear and Fortune Bear. They come in a corn cob basket. Get the popcorn ready because you'll be busy with this assortment of 19 movies donated by Mary and Rollin Baker. Fair Wells has donated a Raggedy Ann Doll for the young or young at heart.
