Band attends U.I.L. marching contest

By Cecelia Ruiz

On Oct. 19 the Rice High School Raider Band attended the 1999 U.I.L. Region XXIII Marching Contest at Pidgeon Stadium, Cypress-Fairbanks ISD.

The bands feature songs were "Coronado Gold" with trumpet solos by senior Dustin Brisco and sophomore Bernardo Vasquez, "Jumpstreet" which features the percussion section and "Latin Closer" with a trombone solo by junior Chris Rodriguez.

The band did very well, receiving a 3rd division in marching.

The band is under the direction of Mr. James Talton.

The fans can continue to support the Mighty Raider Band and Rice Raider football team at the remaining two games.

Meet the Lady Raider

By Amanda Engstrom

"Band-ten-hut" is a familiar sound to our 1999-2000 Head Drum Major. Tabitha Connor says it every Friday night before the Mighty Raider Band performs their half-time show.

Tabitha says, "Before approaching the field, I take a deep breathe and look at the many faces that make up the Mighty Raider Band." Her main goal she would like to make this year are leadership, musicianship and showmanship.

Besides being Head Drum Major, she is Band Council president, Eagle Lake 4-H Club president and council delegate, church leader and NHA treasurer. She also is an honor roll student and was a nominee for the DAR award.

Her spare time is spent doing homework. She also enjoys baking and coloring with her four-year-old sister, Geneva.

Tabitha is the daughter of Patricia Evans of Eagle Lake.

RHS Thespians attend workshops at UT

By Chrissy Leopold

Saturday, Oct. 16, the Rice High School (RHS) thespians attended a U.I.L. Superconference at the University of Texas in Austin.

The superconference consisted of workshops that were primarily held to prepare students for the next One-Act Play competition in March of 2000, however, the workshops were available to anyone. There were also workshops for theatre directors and teachers.

Those attending from RHS were Chrissy Leopold, Debbie Leopold, Jeremy Walker, Cathy Fearing, Hub Weller and Jaqui Mahalitic. They were accompanied by Mrs. Deborah Reed, the theatre, speech and English III teacher at Rice. She is also assisting with the fall play, "Faith County."

The students learned many new exercises and techniques to improve their acting, voice, and performance. Weller, the lighting director for the fall play, attended lighting workshops while Fearing and Mahalitic attended acting and make-up workshops.

D. Leopold and Walker attended acting and stage combat workshops.

C. Leopold participated in acting, directing and behind the scene workshops.

All participants gained a wealth of knowledge and had fun in the process.

Come witness the fruits of their labor in the Drama Club's fall production, "Faith County," on Dec. 11.
