Lucille Greer Roy

April 2, 1913 - November 1, 1999

Lucille "(Mother) Lu-Lu" Greer Roy of Eagle Lake, closed her eyes in her sleep at 12:38 a.m. November 1, 1999 in the Rice Medical Center.

Such steady grind and constant work wore down her body. Her physical strength weakened and affliction fell upon her. Tired and weary, she took to her bed. Patiently, though often in pain and misery, she waited happily and good natured for orders from her God. Her memory will ever live in the hearts and minds of those who knew her.

The first child of two, she was born in Bryan April 2, 1913 to Samuel and Jennie Washington Greer. She was converted and baptized at an early age.

Lucille was married to Jim Roy Sr. To this union, six children were born. Two others were born before the marriage to Jim Roy Sr. (Ruby Davis and Jerry Watkins).

In 1944, Lucille moved to Eagle Lake and was united with the Greater Mount Olive Baptist Church during the pastorage of Rev. Langum.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; sons, Jerry Watkins and Jim Roy Jr.; daughter, Ruby Davis; and sister, Georgia Mae Davenport.

She leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memory, a devoted son, James Roy Sr. of Eagle Lake; four devoted daughters, Geraldine Flowers and Earnestine Scott of Eagle Lake, Alice Austin of San Diego, California, and Jennie and son-in-law, Wayne Barnes of Kileen; two devoted nieces, Mary Underwood of La Porte and René Cooper of Eagle Lake, who she helped raise.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Friday, November 5, from Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church with Rev. Rudolph Kiser Sr., Pastor, officiating. Interment followed in Eagle Lake Community Cemetery North.

Ben Davis Funeral Home of Columbus was in charge of arrangements.

Lois Goode Glueck

September 20, 1922 - November 8, 1999

Lois Goode Glueck, 77, of Sealy, closed her eyes to peaceful rest in the River Oaks Convalescent Center at 7:45 p.m. Monday, November 8, 1999 after a lengthy illness.

She was born September 20, 1922 in Columbus to Lee and Tillie Nelson Goode.

Friends in the area will be deeply saddened to learn of the death of Mrs.

Glueck. She was a beloved resident of Sealy at the time of her death and formerly of Eagle Lake and numerous other cities.

Lois attended Eagle Lake High School, Class of 1940, then sensed the need to be of service to her country. She enlisted in the U.S. Navy as a Wave and attained the rating of Yeoman 1st Class.

She and Allen A. Glueck were united in marriage in Colly Memorial Methodist Church of Eagle Lake on November 8, 1945, observing their 54th year of marriage last Monday.

Lois was a dedicated wife, mother and friend. She was always willing to do unto others as you would have them do unto you. She shall be remembered by all who came to know and love her.

She had been an active member of the Order of the Eastern Star having served as Worthy Matron and past Deputy Grand Worthy Matron.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and a brother, Robert Lee Goode.

Survivors include her husband, Allen A. Glueck of Sealy; son and daughter-in-law, Darrell and Diane Glueck of Katy; granddaughter, Amanda Glueck of Katy; sister and brother-in-law, Eunice and Fred R. Frnka of Eagle Lake; brother and sister-in-law, John T. and Myrle Goode of Abilene; nieces; nephews; other relatives and a host of loved ones.

Funeral services were scheduled for Wednesday, November 10, at 2 p.m. from the Chapel of Dulany Funeral Home with Rev. Merle Blado, Pastor First Baptist Church of Sealy, officiating.

Interment is to follow at Lakeside Cemetery in Eagle Lake.

Dulany Funeral Home in Eagle Lake is in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers scheduled were Jeff Frnka, Ted Brunner, Henry Sunderman, Gary Yoakam, Greg Lehde and J.J. Grigar.

Sympathy is extended to the family in their loss.

CORRECTING A CROOKED TOOTH

Maybe you'd have a really attractive smile, except for that crooked tooth that makes you feel self-conscious whenever you open your mouth. Even one tooth that is rotated, pivoted, or misaligned in some way can detract from your appearance.

Whenever you think of this problem, you probably think of orthodontics, envisioning long, expensive treatment. However, the problem may be much easier for your dentist to correct than you realize. Usually when only one or a few teeth are out of line this is considered a minor orthodontic problem. The principle behind the treatment is to find a way to apply a steady force to a tooth over a period of time so your dentist can bring it back into the desired position. This is usually accomplished through use of wire, band, or bracket to hold the crooked tooth in place. The purpose is to create permanent changes around the tooth's roots.

You don't have to spend the rest of your life with an embarrassing crooked tooth. Ask your dentist what he would recommend in treating this problem and in improving your appearance.

Presented as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of JOHN B. MYRES, D.D.S., 700 S. McCarty Avenue, Eagle Lake, 234-3525.
