'What a glorious Revival'

A glorious revival was held Aug. 14-18 at 7:30 p.m. each evening at the Greater Rising Star "M" Baptist Church where the Rev. Truman Scott is pastor, which was combined with White Cloud "M" Baptist Church where the Rev. Obie Rhodes is pastor. The Evangelist for the week was the "Fourth Vice Moderator" of the "Independent Missionary Baptist General Association of Texas" the Rev. Dr. C.L. Wallace" pastor of the Mother's Zion "M" Baptist Church of Wharton, Texas.

On Monday night, scripture reading was by Host Pastor Rev. T. Scott, the 100 Psalm; prayer by the Rev. R. Kiser. Institute teacher, the Rev. K. Wicks. Eph. 3:20, 21. The evangelist, Dr. Wallace, introduced us to Matt. 28: 18-20. Sub. "the mission of the church."

On Tuesday night, scripture reading by Rev. K. Wicks, reading Romans 12: 1-8. Prayer by Rev. J.H. James. Institute teacher, the Rev. N. Lemons. Institute teacher, the Rev. R. Kiser on "salvation" Psalms 40: 13-17. The evangelist favored us with Hallelujah, Psalms 147:1, 2. Which has six phrase of nature, of providence, of grace, of praise, of judgement of sovereign. (Supremacy) the highest of praise. On Thursday night, scripture reading by Rev. K. Wicks, reading Romans 10:12-14. Prayer by Rev. N. Lemons. Institute teacher, the Rev. J.H. James, I Thess., 5:19 on "Grieving the Holy Spirit".

Dr. Wallace expounded on Romans 7:2 one verse, about, "the enemy that blocks our path." We are our worse enemy, "Self"

On Friday evening, scripture reading by White Cloud's Pastor, Rev. O. Rhodes. Prayer by Greater Rising Star's Pastor Rev. Truman Scott. Institute speaker by he Rev. L. Robertson, Luke 12: 16-21. Rich but yet poor.

Dr. C.L. Wallace, consummated with Joshua 24:15, "Choose you this day whom you will serve."

For the last 20 years Rev. Wallace has been coming this way. I pray God's blessing upon all his called and chosen ministers, and the entire house-hold of faith.

Reporter: Sis. Inola Johnson, North Lake Missionary Baptist Church where the Rev. J.H. James is pastor.

Congratulations to Paula Richardson

Paula Richardson, a resident of Eagle Lake, and the Minister of Music at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church in Al-leyton, attended her first Gospel Music Workshop of America Convention, the oldest and largest gospel music organization in the world, Aug. 13-19 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

While there, she was chosen to lead one of the songs at the live recording of the "GMWA Women of Worship" CD which is a great honor. She will also have the opportunity to travel to Nashville, Tennessee to finish the recording. She has already opened up gospel concerts for such great artists as The Mighty Clouds of Joy, Dorothy Norwood and Chester "DT" Baldwin.

Let's just encourage one of Eagle Lake's own who is moving forward doing the Lord's will in her song ministry that will reach to all the corners of the world.

Catholic Church study week set for Jan. 2001

Lay and ordained ministers of the Roman Catholic Diocesan Church of Victoria are hearing much lately on the Christian call to evangelize and work in relationship with each other's ministries. Many parish leaders are being trained to implement the Disciples in Mission process next spring. This lectionary based catechesis will prepare us to be a more evangelizing church.

Charlene O'Connell, the Director of Religious Education and Catholic Adult Formation for the Church of Austin, recently gave the keynote address at the Aug. 8 meeting of the Organization of Catechetical Leadership in Victoria. In her address she emphasized the intimate relationship between catechesis and evangelization as stated in the General Directory for Catechesis (GDC).

This will not be all. Continuing on in this direction, at the upcoming Victoria Conference for Catechesis and Ministry (VCCM) on Sept. 30, Sr. Linda Gaupin, CDP, Ph. D., will deliver the Keynote Address titled, "The Harmonious Work of the Sower: Liturgy, Catechesis and Evangelization." In Jan. of 1999 Sr. Linda gave a major presentation at the 37th Annual Southwest Liturgical Conference Study Week in Lubbock on this same topic.

"This was a dynamic and visionary presentation," comments Eddie Winkler, pastor of the Parish of the Nativity, Eagle Lake and Chair of the Diocesan Liturgical Commission. "Her remarks flowed from the newly revised GDC with its unitive vision of ministry where liturgy and catechesis are wedded together so that the "particular Church may grow harmoniously and its evangelizing activity may spring from authentic sources" [GDC 72].

Sr. Linda was specifically chosen by the local VCCM Committee to present this vision of ministry for us, as it puts away the compartmentalizing of ministries. That is, where ministers think they have only one job to do and that ministries are not related to each other. She will therefore encourage ministers of catechesis and evangelization to attend the upcoming SWLC Study Week, Jan. 17-20, 2001 hosted by the Church of Victoria in Port Lavaca: Liturgy: Celebrating God's Action, We Live - We Move - We Have Our Being.

This Study Week will break open the liturgical rituals of gesture, posture, and movement and explore how these movements of our body contain a richness of meaning.

There will be a music concert by Jaime Cortez in the Sanctuary of Holy Family Parish, Victoria at 7:30 p.m. Friday night, Sept. 29, before the VCCM. "This concert will also encourage ministers of catechesis and evangelization to understand their relationship with the liturgical life of the Church," states Sr. Digna Vela, director of the Office of Catechetical Ministry.

The Roman Catholic Diocesan Church of Victoria is comprised of those parishes in Calhoun, Colorado, Dewitt, Goliad, Jackson, Lavaca, Matagorda, Victoria, and Wharton Counties, and the portion of Fayette County south and west of the Colorado River.

Non-Catholic ministers or interested persons are welcomed at both upcoming events.
