

Study Club reveals a few more items for Oct. 28 auction...

Delbert and Marlene Castleman, better known as the Castleman Cow Camp Cooks, are donating a Chuck Wagon Supper for 30 people to this year's Study Club Auction. So, put on the feed bags and get to biddin'.

State Rep. Robby Cook has donated a 2000 Capitol Ornament. If you bought last year's, why not keep the collection going?

Like to snuggle? You can do it with this fluffy bear donated by Judy and Harvey Cooper or this doll, donated by Grace Dell Cooper.

Jones becoming a star

Martha Jones of Eagle Lake is a rising star among the fans of the Rosenberg Opry. And now that the show is being televised in several states and Canada, she is becoming an international sweetheart.

Her heart-felt renditions of such favorites as "Mr. Man In The Moon," "How Far Is Memphis" and "That's How I Got To Memphis" are becoming the most requested songs of the show.

"Martha has a way of making everyone feel like they've known her all their lives," is how she is described by the Opry Manager and TV Host JC Cooper.

Not only is she the regular bass guitar player, she adds beauty, humor and class to the show as well as participates in the song arrangements.

"When we do some of the old Western Swing of the Milton Brown and Bob Wills era, she just nails 'em," Cooper said with an enthusiastic smile. "I'm getting a bit jealous as she is getting way more fan mail than I am."

Martha is the daughter of long time band leader Harry (and Helen) Supak of Eagle Lake.

Class of '51 sets sail

The Class of '51 sail boat for the Eagle Lake High School Reunion Parade Saturday, Oct. 7, 2000 has made quite journey getting here.

The bamboo used for the structure of the boat was grown in Judy and Bobbie Payne's yard on the Trinity River near Moss Hill. It was transported to Pearland to the home of Bill and Sue (Mooney) Fultz where it was cut, sized and shaped into a boat. Then carried to Eagle Lake to Walter and Nellie (DeShazo) Frnka where it was

60th Anniversary

Robert and Maxine Griffith of Eagle Lake celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary Sept. 21, 2000. Family and friends honored the couple with cards, gifts, dinner and an evening at the theatre. Congratulations to Bob and Maxine.

Attorney's Office raided three businesses and two residences in Copperas Cove last week and seized 103 eight-liner machines and $51,000 in cash and gift certificates.

The state's newest area code officially went into effect last week. Area code 682 overlays all of the existing 817 area code and covers most of Tarrant, Johnson, Parker and Hood counties, and part of Wise and Denton counties.

Denise Janow of 2K's Taqueria has the way to a man's heart. What about bidding on two chicken or beef fajita dinners? While on the subject of food, Austin's BBQ & Catering is also donating a barbecued ham.

The two candle center pieces of potpourri design (above) donated by J&K's Corner and Kenneth Kainer are just what you need to make your home smell great during the holidays.

Along with the candle sets is a basket chocked full of rice, crayons, coffee mugs, color books and mints donated by Eagle Lake Rice Dryer.

Wallis State Bank in Eagle Lake has donated a 1999 and a 2000 commemorative uncirculated American Eagle silver dollars (at right). What a great gift for that coin collector in your family.
