

Tailfeathers Guide Service offers 35 years of experience

Mike "Duck" Fisher, owner of Tailfeathers Guide Service, invites you to make a hunt with him.

With 35 years of experience guiding waterfowl hunters, I believe in making your hunt the best hunt possible.

The location on the Eagle Lake prairie, 60 miles west of Houston, includes rice fields, flooded timber and prairie ponds for duck hunting, as well as plowed ground, rice and oat fields for goose hunting.

All duck hunting is done from blinds, with decoys set and retrieved by the guides.

For an additional charge, good spreads can be set by the guides the evening before your hunt.

Decoys and hunters are carried to the blind or hunting area by ATV. This service is ideal for children, the veteran hunter, the disabled hunter or the hunter who is simply out of shape.

If you are tired of hunting with "Guides" who don't know a Pintail from a Porcupine, "Guides" who spend more time calling their dog than ducks, then give Tailfeathers a try.

Hunt with guides who love to hunt, hunt everyday and will do their dead level best to make sure you kills birds and have a great hunt.

I have the highest bird per man average during Snow Goose Only season than any club in Colorado County.

No Brag... Just Fact.

I offer quality hunts at fair prices.

For reservations, call "Duck" at 979-732-7549.
