located on Hanly St. The homeowner advised that someone might be in the house. Officer Alley searched the residence, but no one was located inside.

At 7 p.m., Louis Montrane Richardson turned himself in on an assault family violence warrant, Class A misdemeanor. The warrant was issued as the result of an ELPD investigation. Sgt. Bill Lattimore took custody of Richardson and later transported him to the CCDC for confinement.

While at the CCDC, Sgt. Lattimore received a grand jury indictment warrant on Patrick Lane for unlawful use of a criminal instrument, a 3rd degree felony. Sgt. Crume learned that Lane was located in an apartment in Sealy and advised Sealy Police Department of the warrant. Lane was arrested later that evening by the Sealy Police Department and transported back to Colorado County.

At 10:50 p.m., Sgt. Lattimore was dispatched to a disturbance at 1005 N. Lake Ave. Sgt. Lattimore learned no offense had occurred and one of the subjects decided to leave.

Nov. 16, at 8:25 a.m., Officer Michael Krenek responded to a disturbance at 1106 E. State St. Officer Krenak arrived and calmed the situation down. No criminal offense had been committed.

At 8:50 a.m., Officer Krenek was dispatched to 518 First St. in reference to a criminal trespass. The suspect was later located and issued a criminal trespass warning.

At 1:05 p.m., the ELPD received information from the Houston Police Department Auto Theft Task Force, advising that Kyle Wesley Chaddick was under investigation for an auto theft and had several outstanding warrants issued out of several counties. Officer Krenek and Sgt. Crume arrested Chaddick at 323 S. McCarty on the following warrants: driving while intoxicated, failure to identify, violation of probation, burglary of a building, and 10 warrants for issuance of a bad check. He was processed at the ELPD and transported to CCDC for confinement.

At 10:40 p.m., Officer Bryan Lasley was dispatched to a family disturbance at 405 Second St. No assault had been committed and one of the persons involved had left the residence.

At 11:23 p.m., Lt. Clem Johnson and Officer Lasley were dispatched to

The Barn in reference to a fight. Officers arrived and arrested Jason Martin Johnson for public intoxication. Johnson was transported to the ELPD for processing and later to the CCDC for confinement.

On Nov. 17, at 11:48 p.m., Officer Krenek conducted a traffic stop in the 400 block of Church St. As a result, Randy Perkins was arrested on warrants for terroristic threat, endangering a child and assault family violence. The passenger, Derrick Jones, was arrested for possession of marijuana. Both subjects were transported to the ELPD for processing and later to the CCDC for confinement.

On Nov. 18, at 10:38 a.m., Officer Krenek was dispatched to the railroad crossing gate located on McCarty and Post Office. Krenek was advised the gate had been broken off, possibly by a passing vehicle. Union Pacific Railroad was contacted.

At 12:49 p.m., Officer Krenek was dispatched to a fight at the My Place Bar. He arrived on the scene and was advised no assault had taken place.

At 9:41 p.m., Lt. Johnson and Officer Lasley were dispatched to the My Place Bar in reference to a fight. The officers learned Demetra Ashton allegedly broke a window out of Earl Jolivett's car. Jolivett did not wish to file charges.

At 11:35 p.m., Officer Lasley located a vehicle in a ditch in the 1000 block of Conner. The driver returned; there was no damage to the vehicle.

On Nov. 19, at 1:15 a.m., Lt. Johnson and Officer Lasley were dispatched to the My Place Bar in reference to a fight. Officer arrived to find a large crowd in the streets. They were able to clear the streets without incident. No assaults were reported.

At 10:59 a.m., Officer Krenek responded to a 9-1-1 hang-up at 518

First St. When he arrived, he learned a child had been playing with the phone.

At 1:13 p.m., Officer Krenek was dispatched to a civil matter at 612 E. State St. Krenek handled the situation at the scene.

On Nov. 20, at 4:05 p.m., Officer Alley was dispatched to 603 E. Main St. in reference to a minor traffic accident. There was minor damage to one vehicle, but no injuries reported.

At 7:10 p.m., Officer Steven Nelson was dispatched to 751 Heritage Lane in reference to a hit and run. The victim did not want to file charges.

On Nov. 21, at 2 a.m., Officer Nelson arrested Robert Troy Johnson in the 400 block of S. Austin Rd. on two outstanding warrants: motion to revoke probation for burglary of a building and motion to revoke probation for resisting arrest. Johnson was processed at the ELPD and transported to the CCDC for confinement.

The following teachers from the area were named in the sixth edition of Who's Who Among America's Teachers, 2000:

Dollie Coleman, Russell Roark, Ray Sykowski, Vilma Vavrusa, Claudine Shorter, Cynthia Sumderman and Tommie Lynn Holden.

Ron Meitzen Jr. of Bastrop has officially passed his state peace officers exam and is now a licensed peace officer.

Ron is employed with Travis County Sheriff's Dept. in Austin and is also attending SWT, majoring in criminal justice.

He is the son of Mike and Phyllis Meitzen of LaVernia, and the grandson of the late Bob and Rubie Meitzen of Eagle Lake and Leo and Angeline Hoffman of Nada.

Congratulations to Cordero Lynn Cardenas for making the honor roll at Columbus Elementary School.

This marks the second time in a row that Cord has made his family very proud. The first six weeks, he made the "A" Honor Roll. The second six weeks he was on the "A&B" Honor Roll in which he had one B and all the rest were As.

Cord is the son of Daniel and Pamela Cardenas and the grandson of Walter Guthmann of Columbus.

He is the grandson Lydia and Atilano Cardenas Jr. and the great-grandson of Atilano Cardenas Sr. all of Eagle Lake.

Vickie Taylor, traffic announcer for 104 KRBE in Houston, stopped in at the Headlight recently.

Seems she and Carol Cardenas Nelson are long-time friends and once worked together at KULM in Columbus many moons ago.

Vickie worked as afternoon DJ for Columbus and Carol was known as the "Polka Queen".

to Refugio in rainy conditions. Improvements are in progress, but will not be completed before the Thanksgiving holiday.

Another problem facing travelers along U.S. 77 south of Woodboro in Refugio County is the closure of the restrooms at the rest area. Due to the failure of the water pump at the Texas Department of Transportation Rest Area, the restroom facilities are currently closed and will remain closed until early next week. Work is currently underway to replace the pump and some piping. The Rest Area will remain open, however, no restroom facilities will be available.
