Talent Show remains top attraction

The Eagle Lake Prairie Chicken Festival is once again featuring a Talent Show on Saturday, April 7 from 1 to 5 p.m. Contestants will be judged on originality, appearance, talent, showmanship and crowd appeal. The individuals who excel in all five areas will win a trophy.

There was a tremendous response to the Talent Show once again last year and it proved to be one of the highlights of the festival.

This year's Talent Show is offering trophies to five individuals whose talent stands out from the rest. The judges will be selected from Eagle Lake, Columbus and Sealy.

Even if you're not talented, don't miss the "talents" of your friends and neighbors. You won't be disappointed.

Who knows? You might even catch a glimpse of a rising star.

Talent Show winners for 2000 were:

- Best Overall — Karlie Schindler;
- Group — Shelly Myres and Friends;
- Youth — Nicole Weyand;
- Teen — Will Carter; and
- Adult — Sundie Hardt

To register call Deborah Reed at (979) 234-2601 or email Treed00001@aol.com or Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce at 234-2780.

Petting zoo to feature pony and camel rides

Children visiting the Seventh Annual Eagle Lake Prairie Chicken Festival need to be sure to stop at the Animal Parties Petting Zoo, owned by Kim & Hershil Finley, to enjoy the animals.

The petting zoo will feature 25 species of beautiful, clean, gentle, exotic and unusual animals from all over the world. Among the featured animals will be llamas, giant tortoises, wallabies, bunnies, chicks, deer, pigs, sheep, goats, ducks and more.

The petting zoo will open on Saturday at 8 a.m. and Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Also, camel and pony rides will be provided for $2 and $1, respectively.
