Dromgoole, Gammill honored with shower, luncheon

July 15, Dena Shea Dromgoole, bride-elect of Ari Renoir Gammill, was honored with a birdseed bag shower at the Dromgoole's home in Bonus.

Guests arrived around 6 p.m. to begin making birdseed bags out of white and lavender tulle that were tied with coordinating satin bows. The color theme of lavender was also used on the registration table holding the bride's book and a floral arrangement around a column candle.

Guests were served hotdogs with all the trimmings, a variety of chips and dips, and for dessert, homemade pecan squares and "Out of This World Cake".

The hostesses for the shower were Brooksie Fuchs and Sarah Wanjura of Weimar and LeShon Dromgoole of Bonus.

Special guest attending the shower was the bride-elect's mother, Carol Joy Dromgoole of Bonus.

Dena Shea and Ari were feted with luncheon July 28 at Churchhill Downs in El Campo. The tables were decorated in a wedding motif with accents of lavender and pink.

Guests arrived at eleven o'clock and were greeted by their hostess, Dr. Carman Wiese of Del Rio, formerly of Eagle Lake.

The luncheon began with everyone playing three games of Spanish Bingo, a Del Rio party game favorite. The winner of each game was given a gift to open that was designated to be presented to the mother of the bride or the mother of the groom. The third game prize was for the bride-to-be, and Dena Shea was presented with a matching silver cake knife and server.

The luncheon menu consisted of fresh garden salad, chicken salad served on green lettuce leaves with crackers, fresh mixed fruit cups, raspberry tea and coffee. Double fudge chocolate cake topped with whip cream and hot fudge drizzle or butter-milk pie with whip cream were the delicious dessert choices.

After lunch, the guest joined in to help decorate the bubbles that will be passed out to guests at the reception.

Special guests attending the luncheon were Carol Joy Dromgoole, mother of the bride-elect, and LeShon Dromgoole, sister of the bride-elect.

Dr. Wiese presented each special guest with a corsage fashioned from lavender, fuchsia and light pink flowers and baby's breath, tied with lavender chiffon and organza ribbon.

The bride-elect's corsage also had hearts made from white satin cord.

Dena Shea and Ari will be married Saturday, Aug. 18, at the First Baptist Church in El Campo at 4 p.m.
