

The hands of Fair Wells and Esta Lippman hold lovely pieces of crystal; a Baccarat low crystal vase and Baccarat crystal butterfly, along with a Swarovski crystal squirrel

All Study Club Photos by Carol Nelson, Headlight Staff

Dr. John Myres, DDS, and wife, Laura, are making your Christmas shopping easy by donating this 20-inch Huffy bicycle to the Study Club Auction.

Just in time for the holidays is this Christmas tree skirt with pockets for toys and a soft Christmas baby book. The tree skirt comes with two Ty Beanie Babies in the pockets.

Kate Spalinger donated this gift basket full of toys for the kids. Keep them busy while you take time out for yourself. On the right, Connie Webb has created this autumn wreath that will accent any door.

Offering you a Robert Burns multi-course Scottish Gourmet dinner in the home of Tom and Deborah Reed, featuring poetry, music and dancing are from left, in back, Tom Kelley and Tom Reed; in front (sitting in for Vickie Kelley) is Sara Reed and Sara's mom, Deborah.

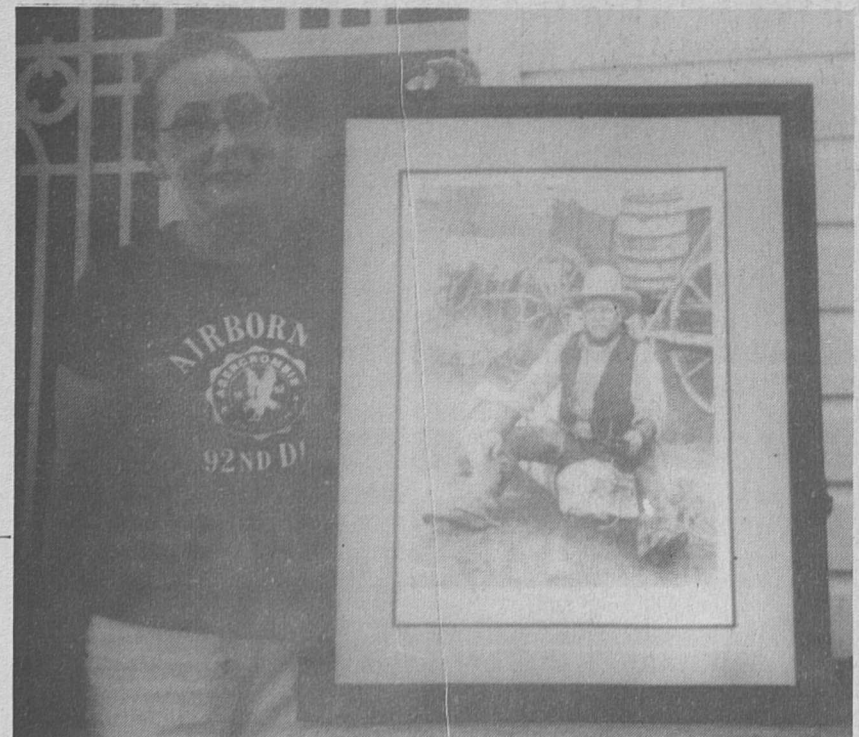

Not only does Laura Matthys volunteer her time to the hospital as a "Pink Lady", she also makes necklaces from church bulletins. They'll be in the silent auction awaiting your bid.

For the expecting mommies out there, here's a baby afghan and quilt in time for that precious arrival. Librarian Vicki Powers took time out of her busy schedule to pose with them.

Pamper yourself with these products: a "Tea for Two" basket, featuring a tea pot, two cups and saucers, a variety of teas, chocolate goodies and a tea time journal along with hair care products donated by Tresse's Inc. Hair Salon. Just what you need after a long, grueling day.

Esta (in the photo) and Larry Lippman donated a large print of the winning art from the 2001 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

Anna Gertson, owner of Creative Expressions, is holding a Croton plant donated by the Delta Phi Sorority, which she belongs to. Also in the photo is a twig tree covered with a silk arrangement donated by Creative Expressions.
