TEC gets new vice-president

Johnny Andrews is joining Texas Electric Cooperative (TEC) as vice-president of TEC Utility Supply and Service Division. Previously, Andrews was regional sales director of WESCO Distribution, where he was responsible for branch offices in Texas and Oklahoma.

"We are proud that Johnny has agreed to join our organization," said Mike Williams, president and CEO of TEC. "He has more than 15 years' experience in the utility supply industry."

TEC is the statewide association for 76 electric utility cooperatives. The Utility Supply and Service Division sells transformers and related supplies. In addition, the division repairs transformers and handles safe recycling and disposal of waste items.

Andrews holds a degree in electrical engineering technology from Texas Tech University in Lubbock.
