Scholarships

received $500; from Weimar High School, Matthew Berger, son of Sheryl and Douglas Berger of Weimar, who received $1000. The three $1000 scholarships awarded Tuck, Shanks and Berger were given in memory of the late Eddie Orange, who was a member of the board of directors of the fair association and also served as president of the Colorado County Ag Complex prior to his death.

In addition, $4,250 in scholarships were awarded to the winners in the 2001 Fair Queens' Pageant held September 8th last year. Fair Queen Kelli Grunewald, daughter of Evelyn and Raymond Grunewald of Weimar, received the $1000 Leslie Schmidt Heard Memorial Scholarship. Membership Queen Stacy Markwardt, daughter of Lucy and Steven Markwardt of New Ulm, received a $2000 scholarship for selling $13,195 in advance season passes and life memberships to the fair. The first runner-up in sales, Hilary Stavinocha, daughter of Patricia and Gary Stavinocha of Cat

Spring received a $750 scholarship. Fair Queen Grunewald was second runner-up in sales and received a $500 scholarship for her efforts.

Members of the fair's board of directors currently serving on the scholarship committee include chairman Wade Gibson, Pamela Potter and Rita Ruffeno, all of Columbus, Evelyn Orange of Mentz, Carol Ripper of Eagle Lake, Molly Strunk Janak of Oakland and Darlene Hayek of Weimar.
