4 CARDS OF THANKS

The Austin Family wishes to thank Medic 3 for their service and Rice Medical Center and staff, Drs. Cantu, Bornstein, Arebalo and Krishna for their great teamwork during the illness of Lena Austin.

Thanks to Greater Mt. Olive Church Family, may the Lord continue to bless them; Dulany Funeral Home; and the Eagle Lake Community for the food, flowers and whatever was done to uplift the family during their loss.

May God bless you and His face shine upon you.

The Gooden-Hatten Family

Library — Continued from Page 3

ance, taxes and so many other topics I can't possibly list them all — check it out.

Betty Wegenhoft shares the following book review: German Boy records events that Wolfgang W.E. Samuel (author) experienced as a young boy in Germany at the conclusion of World War II and the years immediately thereafter. This is a story about people living under terrible circumstances, about women and children and the horrible consequences of war. The author says, "I have been asked how I could remember details, including, conversations with such vividness and exactitude. The answer is simple. I carried these pictures of life and death in the vault of my memory, unchanged by time, until I was ready to write them down."
