Qualifications early, mail voting

The law requires that the address to which the ballot is going to be mailed must be the residence address of the voter indicated on the mailing address record with the Voter Registrar. The exceptions to the rules are as follows:

1) The voter is 65 or older, or disabled;

If the grounds for voting by mail is either 65 or over, or disability, the application must give the address of a hospital, nursing home, long term care facility, or retirement center, or the address of a relative within the second degree of affinity or third degree of consanguinity, with whom the applicant is living.

2) If the voter is confined in jail;

If the reason is confinement to jail, the application must give the address of the jail facility at which the voter is confined, or the address of a relative within the second degree of degree of affinity or third degree of consanguinity.

3) If the voter is expected to be absent from the county;

If the voter is expected to be absent from the county on election day and during clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the early voting period, the application must give an out of county address to mail the ballot, if submitted after early voting in person has begun. Early voting by personal appearance begins Oct. 21, 2002.

Persons voting by mail must have their applications in the County Clerk's office by the close of regular business hours on Oct. 29, 2002.

Persons voting early by personal appearance may vote at the County Clerk's office, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. beginning Oct. 21, 2002 through Nov. 1, 2002.

Early voting will be conducted in the County Clerk's office on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2002 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon for the convenience of the voters who cannot vote on Tuesday, Nov. 5 from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. You do not have to have an excuse to vote early in person. You may do so for your convenience.

Limited ballot

1) The Election Code authorizes a limited ballot after changing county of residence.

2) The person voting a limited ballot under Section 112.001 of the Texas Election Code is entitled to vote only on each office or measure to be voted in a territorial unit, State or District of which the person was resident both before changing their County of residence and after the change.

Eligibility

1) After changing residence to another County, a person is eligible to vote a limited ballot by personal appearance or by mail if:

a. The person would have been eligible to vote in the County of former residence on election day if still residing in the County.

b. The date of election is not more than 90 days after the new residence was established. A voter registration for the person in the County of new residence is not effective on or before election day.

2) A person is not eligible to vote a limited ballot by mail unless in addition to satisfying the eligibility requirements prescribed above, the person is eligible to vote early by mail under the standard early mail rules.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 979-732-2155. Please remember to vote Nov. 5, 2002.

Thank you,
Darlene Hayek
