He is the Light of the world

Pastors Joe & Mercy Fling
Living Hope Church
Corner of N. McCarty & Church Streets
Eagle Lake

Jesus is the light of the world. We celebrate His coming at Christmas. It is a time of hope, a time of faith, a time of love! Truly, to all faiths, this is the season of light. It is a festival of lights, a festival of faith, hope and love. A festival of joy. It is a celebration of life itself.

In the beginning, God spoke and said, "Let there be light." This was the beginning of God's creation of life itself.

The prophet Isaiah said, "Those that sat in darkness have seen a great light." The Apostle John said it this way, "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men."

In our darkness, in our despair, we look to God for guidance. We look to the light on our paths. Jesus is that light.

We need sit no longer in our darkness, we need sit no longer in our despair. Do not let depression bind you. Come out of the darkness and into the light. To the light that is the light of men. The light of Jesus Christ. The one we worship, the one we celebrate at this marvelous Christmas season.

God placed a special star in the sky two millennia ago, to guide the magi, the wise men, to the place of Christ's birth. Today, all wise men are drawn to the light of His shining. We celebrate the epiphany, the appearing of our Lord, and we wait in hope for His second coming in glory. We wait in joy and the hope to be "changed into His likeness when He appears".

Jesus proclaimed Himself the light of the world, then turned the message around in the sermon on the mount to say to us, "You are the light of the world, as a city set upon a hill cannot be hidden. Let your light so shine before men, that they see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Christmas is the season of good will toward men, which today often translates into good works and random acts of kindness to our fellow man.

Do good unto others, and see that others give God the glory for all we do.

The good that we do in this world, in our doing unto others as we would have them do unto us, our being a "good Samaritan", is measured eternally by whether or not it brings glory to God.

If we do good so that people will praise us, our best deeds are tainted in the process. Let us not forget to do much good in this season. In so doing, we bring much glory to God.

The book of James tells us that "every good and perfect gift comes down from the Father of Lights." Jesus was and is God's perfect gift to the world, and He shines as a beacon of hope to all.

We thank God for the celebration of the coming of Jesus Christ. Let us never forget that that is what Christmas is.

It was on this night, two thousand years ago that Jesus, our Savior was born. Angels appeared to shepherds tending their sheep and spoke these words, "We bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. For unto you is born a savior, which is Christ the Lord."

The message of Christmas is Jesus. He is the light.

The heart of the good news of Jesus Christ is that He brings light on our lives. He brings life and hope and peace and joy. Into our darkness, He shines His light. He will give us peace in place of strife. He will give us strength for our weakness, wholeness for our frailty, love where there was none. He gives us life.

The coming of Jesus brought light into the world, at His birth. A Star marked the spot, and lighted the way.

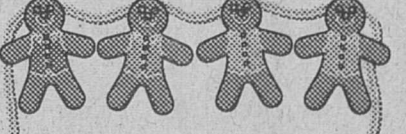

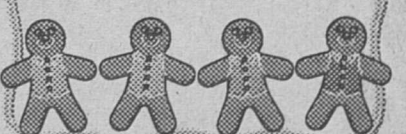

Let the coming of Jesus bring that light into your life today.

From the pastors and congregation of Living Hope Church, in a blessed New Year, we wish you the joy of the coming of Jesus and pray that God extend His great mercy and grace to you, to experience the life, and light and hope of Jesus Christ in a new way. It is time for Christmas.

Season's Greetings From All Of Us

Customers like you are one-of-a-kind. Merry Christmas and many, many thanks.
