Gary Stewart has received accolades ever since he first signed with RCA in 1973. Teamed with producer Roy Dea, who's always been the best at capturing his energy and emotion on record, Gary launched a series of hit singles - "Drinkin' Thing", "Out of Hand", "She's Actin' Single (I'm Drinkin' Doubles)", and "Your Place or Mine" among others - that propelled him to the forefront as the wildest honky-tonk singer of the decade. With musical influences as diverse as The Allman Brothers Band, Fats Domino, Jimmy Reed, Ritchie Valens and Don Gibson, the Kentucky born and Florida bred performer developed a unique style that's immediately recognizable. With his trademark wailing vibrato, he attacks a song full-bore, giving it a passion and intensity unmatched by any singer in country music. Come enjoy this country legend Friday, September 12.
