their business off to a good start. "We value every one of our customers and we look forward to serving you for a very long time."

Matura also mentioned that the check received would be used for more renovations on the building.

In closing, Matura thanked her daughter and business partner, Laura Witte, for being a great asset to the business. Main Street provides grants for downtown building owners/tenants to help renovate their building. There is a matching grant for renovating the facade and windows, and a grant for signage. To apply for either one or all these grants, please contact Rhonda Bridges, Main Street Manager, at 234-2640 or Louis Schorlemmer, Main Street Design Chairman.

If you are interested in applying for a grant, you must contact one of these people before the work is done and keep all receipts of expenditures.
