Many enjoyed circus

With the Culpepper and Merriweather Circus over and done, a few children in the area should be recognized for winning contests held prior to the circus Wednesday, Oct. 22.

Children from area schools were asked to guess how peanuts were in jar in order to win prizes in conjunction with the circus.

From Eagle Lake Middle School, first place went to Alexandra Castillo. Runners-up were Jaquita Woods, Kirsten Roper, Ashley Carroll and Michelle Mendoza.

From Sheridan, Katelyn Besch, a second grader, took first place. Candance Griffith and Lyndsay Serbin, both kindergarten students, placed second and third, respectively; Kaci Kazmir, an eighth grader, took fourth; and Brittany Moore, second grade, fifth.

Alejandra Mendoza, a fourth grade student at Eagle Lake Primary School, was the big winner of a circus ticket and elephant ride. Other ticket winners were John Morales and Racheal Navarro, fourth graders; Ricardo Gonzalez, second grade; and Nicholas Contreras, third grade.

Garwood students also participated. Among the winners were first place, Mercedes Saenz; second, Austin Dota; third, Jessye Trefny; fourth, Adriel Hernandez; fifth place (tie), Kaydi Gold, Johnny Casteneda, Katie Pagel, Mackenzie Krpec and Ashley Haynes.

For those who attended the circus, young and young-at-heart, had a great time.

Thanks to the Culpepper and Merriweather Circus for stopping in Eagle Lake. But, most of all, thanks to the Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce for sponsoring the event.

Don't try this at home! These ladies had the crowd entranced as they hung from the top of the tent. If you didn't attend, you missed a great show! Headlight Photos by Carol Cardenas Barbara the Elephant showed those in attendance that she's not only strong, but also a good dancer.
